THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Our faculty and staff did very well with their second vaccines. Some did have some reactions, but collectively, we agree, that it's well worth any discomforts to feel safer. I hope many of you have the chance to receive your vaccines soon too.

Thanks to all who participated in our recent school survey. I will review these soon with our Education Commission and faculty members. Your opinions matter to us and the survey responses can help to give a fuller picture. Ultimately, our mission is to help you to raise wonderful caring young people, who are equipped for their futures, because of the faith, prayer, and learning provided to them while they're here with us. Together, we will make this happen.

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
