THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

This Wednesday (4/21) is Administrative Professional's Day, and as you know, I have one of the best! As our School Office Manager, Erica Steinbeck keeps things humming here and has, I'm sure, for quite some time. If you speak with her this week, please help us to thank her for her positive contribution to all of our day-to-day school lives. She's a very pleasant part of your child's day on a regular basis!

You may have noticed or heard that teachers have been wearing "Jags for Joy" or pink on Mondays (with or without Jagitude added in). This is because our beloved, Mrs. Joyce Snyder, is undergoing chemo treatments for breast cancer. With that fact in mind, we will be having a Pink Monday next week (4/26) with donations to benefit the Karen Wellington Foundation. This foundation was founded in memory of a wonderful local lady and mother who died of breast cancer. Karen's family wishes, through their foundation, to better the lives of those LIVING with breast cancer. Here's a link to their foundation's website <https://www.karenwellingtonfoundation.org/> We will all be able to wear pink by donating to this cause in our homerooms that day, and we will also be selling some pink treats at lunch too. Thanks ahead for any support of this very worthwhile cause!

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
