Sts. Primus and Felician

Primus and his younger brother Felician, the sons of a Roman nobleman, were converts to Christianity who devoted themselves to corporal works of mercy. They frequented the prisons, visiting their fellow Christians imprisoned for their faith by the pagan Roman authorities. Eventually the two brothers were themselves apprehended. After refusing to sacrifice to the pagan gods, the two were scourged. As this failed to shake their profession of the faith, they were tortured a second time. Primus was then beheaded, after which his brother was told the falsehood that Primus had apostatized. Recognizing this as a lie, Felician remained steadfast, and suffered martyrdom that same day.

Pope's Prayer Intentions

May 02, 2017

The prayer intention of Pope Francis for May 2017 is "that Christians in Africa, in imitation of the merciful Jesus, may give prophetic witness to reconciliation, justice, and peace."

This year the Vatican has inaugurated a new system for announcing the Pope's monthly prayer intentions. Rather than announcing two intentions (one general intention, one for the missions) in advance each month, the Pope is working with the Apostleship of Prayer to create a video message promoting one intention each month, while allowing for the possibility of additional urgent intentions.
