

STATUE TO GO IN ENTRY TO CHURCH

STATUE OF ST. ADALBERT

A statue of St. Adalbert will be placed above the main entrance of St. Adalbert's Bohemian Roman Catholic church, 2345 E. 83d-st, today.

The statue, which was made in the studio of Raphael Raineri and Ladislav Merhaut, sculptors, 8553 W. 25th-st, is seven feet and one inch in height and weighs two and one-half tons. It was made of Bedford (Ind.) limestone and cost $600.

There will be appropriate ceremonies. Rev. John W. Becka is pastor of the church.