Louis J. Hertzog, deacon, retired physical therapist

Long before he was ordained a deacon in January, Louis J. Hertzog, 65, a retired physical therapist, was known affectionately to friends and neighbors as "the reverend."

When he died Friday at St. Vincent Charity Hospital after a brief illness with cancer, Mr. Hertzog was an associate pastor at St. Adalbert Catholic Church, 2347 E. 83d St.

He was involved for 60 years with all aspects of St. Adalbert, formerly Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament.

He completed a three-year deaconate program at St. Mary Seminary in January.

During the recent ordination of the Cleveland diocese's three new bishops, Mr. Hertzog was one of two deacons who accompanied Bishop James P. Lyke throughout the procession and ceremonies.

He was born in Alabama and came to Cleveland when he was about 5.

As a lay leader at St. Adalbert, he was a member of the Holy Name Society, and served on its board of directors.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge and the Eagles Shrine in Painesville, and the Al Koran Shrine in Cleveland.

He is survived by his wife, Angela, daughter, Beth Ann; sons, Joseph and Roy, and five brothers.

He had been ill with cancer for several months.

Mr. Billington was born in Albion, Pa., and was graduated with a degree in business from Grove City College in 1938. He moved to Cleveland in 1939.

During World War II, Mr. Billington served as a lieutenant in the Navy.

He founded Billington Metal Sales in 1947.

He was a member of the Canterbury Golf Club and the Hermit Club, a private men's club. He had played saxophone in the Hermit Club's Jazz Band since 1961.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth; daughter, Margaret J., and sons, Joseph A., Michael O., Peter B. and Dan B.

He died of internal injuries several hours later.

BETHESDA, Md. — Washington attorney Stuart Stiller, who represented former White House aide John Ehrlichman during the appeal of his Watergate conviction, was killed in a traffic accident in Bethesda, Md. Stiller, 35, crashed his car into a tree, police said. He died of internal injuries several hours later.

PADUCAH, Ky. — William Thomas Davis, a retired newspaper publisher and father-in-law of former National Broadcasting Co. president and chairman Julian Goodman, died at age 80.

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. — Marie Fischel, who walked over 1,000 miles through three European countries to escape the Nazis at the start of World War II, is dead at 104. A watercolor artist, Mrs. Fischel had lived in New York City, where she exhibited her paintings, until 1969. She had been a resident at the New Rochelle Home for Aging Hebrews. Mrs. Fischel was born in Prague in 1875, when the city was still controlled by the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and moved to Vienna in 1929. She came to this country in 1941 at age 62 after having walked from Brussels to Paris to flee the Nazis.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge and the Eagles Shrine in Painesville, and the Al Koran Shrine in Cleveland.
