

Ten Founders
Grow to Class of 40 Members

FOUR months ago today Mrs. A. Stepnicka, member of St. Adalbert's Bohemian parish, Quincy avenue S. E. and E. 83d street, with nine other young women of the parish founded a gymnastic class, following previous organization of classes of boys and young men. From the original membership of ten, the class has grown to forty, and this number is expected to be more than doubled by the time the first public exhibition will be given this winter by all classes in the parish.

The young women athletes have practice sessions every Wednesday evening in the gymnasium of the congregation. They are directed by James Roubic, physical director of St. Adalbert's.

Mrs. Stepnicka, founder of the class, is also its first president.

Other officers are: Miss Stella Hanna, vice president; Miss Frances Masin, secretary; Miss Mary Teplitk, treasurer, and Miss Frances Roubic, assistant treasurer.

The class consists of Miss Julla Hubert, Miss Julia Satava, Miss Lily Roubic, Miss May Valtman, Miss Rose Cunat, Miss Anna Plantnor, Miss Mario Hosek, Miss Ruth Rezac, Miss Zdenka Snora, Miss Josephine Benes, Miss Clara Hajek, Miss Lilly Hajek, Miss Anna Smid, Miss Augusta Smid, Miss Rose Mrnak, Miss J.
