Fifth Sunday of Lent – Third Scrutiny

Background:

It is the grain that falls into the ground and dies that brings forth abundant fruit. It is the Lord lifted high on the cross who will lead all people to the Father’s glory.

Discussion Questions:

- What is it that keeps you from seeing Jesus?
- Which people bring you to Jesus? How?
- What do you need to die to in your life so that you can receive new life from Jesus?
- The crucified Jesus is our King. What part can you play in changing people’s ideas and attitudes toward the marginalized and vulnerable members of our society?

Practice:

A long popular prayer is the Anima Christi, consider including it in your prayer each day this week. ~ TeamRCIA

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
 Body of Christ, save me;
 Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
 Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
 Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
 O good Jesus, hear me;
 within Your wounds, hide me;
 separated from You let me never be;
 from the evil one, protect me;
 at the hour of my death, call me;
 and close to You bid me;
 that with Your saints, I may be praising You forever and ever.
 Amen.

WHY ARE THE STATUES COVERED?

Passiontide (in the Christian liturgical year) is a name for the last two weeks of Lent, beginning on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, long celebrated as Passion Sunday, and ending on Holy Saturday.

New Program

EWTN News in Depth is a round table discussion with in depth interviews that unapologetically examine and analyze important issues, news and events from an authentically Catholic perspective. Montse Alvarado brings you an engaged one-hour discussion about topics ah matter to you. Airs Fridays at 8pm on AM1260 The Rock.

During this Year of Saint Joseph, the Church has made a plenary indulgence available to all the faithful who satisfy the usual conditions (confession, Eucharist, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, a spirit of detachment from sin, and the intention to gain the indulgence for one's self or someone in purgatory), as well as perform one of the prescribed works, as follows:

- Meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Lord's Prayer, or take part in a spiritual retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph Following St. Joseph's example, perform a spiritual or corporal work of mercy
- Recite the Holy Rosary with your family or your fiancé
- Entrust your daily activity to the protection of St. Joseph
- Pray through the intercession of St. Joseph that those seeking work can find dignifying work
- Recite the Litany of St. Joseph for Christians who suffer all forms of persecution.
- Recite any prayer or act of piety legitimately approved in honor of St. Joseph, in particular on March 19, May 1, on the 19th of any month, and every Wednesday.

This gift of a plenary indulgence extends particularly to the elderly, the sick, the dying, and all those who, for legitimate reasons, are unable to leave their homes, if, detached from all sin and with the intention of fulfilling, as soon as possible, the usual conditions, recite an act of piety in honor of St. Joseph, comfort of the sick and patron of a good death, offering with confidence to God the pains and trials of their life.
