Fourth Sunday of Easter

Background

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday, an image that provides the pivot for the focus of the Gospel selections of Easter. It harkens back to last Sunday's mention of the Eucharistic Meal since the Shepherd feeds his flock. It looks forward to the next few Sundays' call to embody our baptismal call to embody the life of the risen Christ in all our relationships. Warning: the statement in Acts about there is "no salvation in any other Name" is not a condemnation of those who are not Christian. In the Gospel, Jesus says that he leads "other sheep who are not of this fold."

Discussion Questions

- In whose voice do you hear the Good Shepherd's voice most often? Why do you hear him speaking through them?
- Which voices in society drown out the voice of Jesus for you? Is there anything you can do about that?
- In what direction do you hear the voice of Christ calling you right now?
- How might you share the joy of life in Christ with others?

Practice

Find a copy of the second half of St. Patrick's Breastplate, the section beginning "Christ be with me, Christ within me," and pray it daily this week.

Year of St. Joseph - During this Year of Saint Joseph, the Church has made a plenary indulgence available to all the faithful who satisfy the usual conditions (confession, Eucharist, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, a spirit of detachment from sin, and the intention to gain the indulgence for oneself or someone in purgatory), as well as perform one of the prescribed works, as follows: Meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Lord's Prayer, or take part in a spiritual retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph. / Following St. Joseph's example, perform a spiritual or corporal work of mercy. / Recite the Holy Rosary with your family or your fiancé. / Entrust your daily activity to the protection of St. Joseph. / Pray through the intercession of St. Joseph that those seeking work can find dignifying work. / Recite the Litany of St. Joseph for Christians who suffer all forms of persecution. / Recite any prayer or act of piety legitimately approved in honor of St. Joseph, in particular on May 1, on the 19th of any month, and every Wednesday.

This gift of a plenary indulgence extends particularly to the elderly, the sick, the dying, and all those who, for legitimate reasons, are unable to leave their homes, if, detached from all sin and with the intention of fulfilling, as soon as possible, the usual conditions, recite an act of piety in honor of St. Joseph, comfort of the sick and patron of a good death, offering with confidence to God the pains and trials of their life.
