Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Summary (Mark 6:1-6)

In last week's Gospel reading, Jesus was able to heal the woman with the hemorrhage and to raise to life the daughter of Jairus because of the great faith each person possessed. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus is unable to perform any mighty deeds because of the lack of faith of the people in his hometown. He comments, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." (Mark 6:4).

Reflection:

A person of honor—a person who gains honor—is a person of honesty, uprightness, ethics, morals, principles, virtue, goodness, and integrity. Take some quiet time to think about these qualities of a person—a parent—who deserves honor. Ask God to show you where you may need to grow and change. Bringing the Good News into Your Family: The Good News that Jesus had hoped to share with those in his hometown is the same Good News that God calls us to share today. Invite family members to name this Good News. Talk about how you have shared, or have tried to share, this Good News with others in your family, with friends, with coworkers, or with classmates.

- Have they listened to what you had to say or not? How did this make you feel?
- How do you think Jesus felt when people in his hometown wouldn't listen to what he had to say?

The Catholic Cemeteries Association is happy to be able to provide our Sunday Grief Support meetings in two formats: In-person with limited seating and virtually via Zoom the 3rd Sunday of each month. We ask participants to RSVP for the in-office meetings so we can plan appropriate distancing at each location. We continue to follow "safe" meeting guidelines as provided by the Diocese and local health authorities. We have very compassionate grief support leaders eager to assist the grieving at all six locations. Families will be blessed by attending. If anyone has questions, please have them call me directly. 216-930-4866.

The Year of St. Joseph continues through December. Sacred Scripture describes St. Joseph as "a just man" (Matthew 1:19) which can also be translated as "righteous," "upright," or, "he who is virtuous in all things." If we want to learn from St. Joseph, we must begin by imitating the virtues he practiced daily in his quiet, hidden life. One of the prescribed works, to gain the indulgence for oneself or someone in purgatory, is to "recite the Litany of St. Joseph for Christians who suffer all forms of persecution." Monthly themes are taken from St. Joseph's virtues and titles as prayed in this Litany. For June, the theme is: Joseph Most Obedient and Head of the Holy Family - All authority is borrowed except for the Author himself. One can only be a just head of a family, be it natural or religious, if one is first obedient to the Word himself. Joseph's perfect obedience rendered him the perfect Head of the Holy Family. The Litany and more contemplations on his virtues can be found at: < <https://yearofstjoseph.org/resources/virtues-of-st-joseph> >.
