Due to the suspension of most indoor activities by the State of California, Bishop Soto has issued new directives regarding the Mass:

- Some regularly scheduled Masses will be either eliminated or combined to fall within the directives. (see ‘Specifics for St. Basil’s Church’ below)
- Face coverings and physical distancing must be observed the entire celebration of the Mass, even if outdoors. Please continue to adhere to the COVID-19 guidelines at cdc.gov
- Check local county ordinances on what is permissible for outdoor gatherings.
- Contact Tracing remains in place. (see ‘Specifics for St. Basil’s Church’ below)
- Please continue to transmit the offering of Mass by live streaming.
- Please read Bishop Soto's letter in English here and in Spanish here.

Specifics for St. Basil’s Church:

- Please park in the front parking lot. The front parking lot is near the main entrance to St. Basil’s church.
- Mass will be celebrated in the large parking lot which is located near the gym.
- Contact Tracing: After parking, proceed to the check-in area for a temperature check and seat assignment. The parking lot will be marked by Row number/Seat letter.
- You may use hats and umbrellas to provide shade. Tents and awnings are not to be used, except for the sanctuary area.
- You are welcome to bring a chair and/or seat cushions from home for comfort.
- Please dress appropriately for Mass keeping in mind outdoor weather conditions.
- Beginning the weekend of July 25 -26, 2020, the following Mass schedule is in place:
