Dear Partners in Education,

Catholic Schools Week (CSW) begins this Sunday, January 31st. If you are new to Catholic schools this year, Catholic Schools Week is a week-long celebration of Catholic school education in the United States. You can find out more about CSW from the National Catholic Educational Association here.

Catholic Schools Week is a special week for our school community. It is a week of school spirit, fun, and celebration. Our CSW committee has worked hard this year to plan activities that highlight our Catholic community. Take a look at the calendar below to see what is in store. There is also a calendar attached to this message if you wish to print it out.

Permission slips are needed to bus the students to St. Alphonsus on Wednesday. Please click the link below to complete the permission form for each of your children:
