ST. BLAISE AND
THE BLESSING OF THROATS

This Tuesday, 3rd February we will celebrate the feast day of a fairly obscure saint, Saint Blaise. We know that he became a physician but then left this profession to become a monk. He soon became the bishop of a city called Sebastea in modern-day Armenia. In 316 he was martyred for his faith, being beheaded during the last major persecution of Christians. St. Blaise is perhaps better known for the “blessing of throats” that takes place on his feast day. Why this connection with Saint Blaise? Well, accounts of his life say that while St. Blaise was being taken to the authorities for his trial and then execution, a mother called out to him for help because her son was choking to death. When St. Blaise blessed the boy, the boy recovered and his life was saved.

The prayer used in the blessing of throats makes clear the purpose of the blessing: “through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from all disease of the throat and every other evil…” No one is quite sure why or how the use of the crossed candles that are placed next to the throat came about, but we often use physical things when a blessing is given to illustrate or underline what we are doing. Being so close to the feast of Candlemas (celebrated the day before), maybe this could be the reason why candles are used and the candles in the shape of a cross remind us of St. Blaise’s martyrdom and also our call to take up our cross and follow the Lord. At St. Ambrose, the Blessing of Throats will be celebrated after the 9.00 am Mass on Tuesday, 3rd February and also after each of the weekend Masses on the 31st January and 1st February.

The blessing of throats can also remind us of another spiritual matter. We know how important our voices and words that are in so many ways. According to researchers, each day we hear or use at least 6,000 words (maybe some use more than others…!). We also know that our voices and words are a great force for good, or for bad. We can all still remember encouraging or hurtful words many years later and such words can shape our lives for good or for ill. That saying that “sticks and stones may break my bones, but your words cannot harm me” is simply not true!

Our feast day of St. Blaise and the blessing of our throat is a timely reminder about how we use our voices and the words come from our mouth. As Psalm 141 puts it: “set a guard over my mouth, LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips.” Let us make sure that the voices are used always for the good. After all, the roots of our words blessing and benediction are from the Latin “bene dicere”, meaning speaking well. In this sense we might pray that as our throats are blessed so too may what comes from our voice may also be blessed and a source of blessing for others!

Fr. Anthony

It is hard to believe that Ash Wednesday will be here soon (18th February). As mentioned at the Masses last weekend, your thoughts about making a few alterations and additions to the availability of receiving the ashes would be appreciated. The aim is to make this availability easier and more helpful to everyone, especially those at work during the day. The proposed timetable is as follows:

- 6.30 am Prayer Service with the giving of ashes
- 9.00 am Mass (including the giving of ashes)
- 12.00 noon Prayer Service with the giving of ashes
- 7.00 pm Mass (including the giving of ashes)

God bless,

Fr. Anthony

Our meeting on January 8th was great. Our speaker, Diane Mercy, talked about her Native American Heritage. She explained the customs and the way the Native Americans lived, worked and celebrated. It was a very interesting talk.

The next meeting will be February 12th and Father Anthony will be the speaker. If you have not heard Father, you will be very pleased, a very good speaker. Don’t forget we are looking for new members, so bring a friend to see what we are all about. “Refreshments too”. Thank you, President Carolyn Chabot, 785-6315.

The Attitude of a Servant
Luke 17:7-10

“Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here immediately and take your place at table’? Would be not rather say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished’? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’

Good and Gracious God, I ask you to plant a seed of stillness in my soul. Everything in my life moves ever more quickly, and I am continually expected to fit more things into time that is already brimming with activity. Even when I have moments that require nothing of me, my mind races and I seem unable to find a switch to turn it off.

Please give me, each day, the desire and capacity to breathe in the wonder of air, to envision a still lake on a windless dawn, to drop deep into the well of my own being and find there the peace of your presence. I ask this for the sake of your love.

The Joy of Spirit...
Some people pass through life in stillness. Others seem to glide along. Some march to their own drummer. Some travel like a whirlwind, seeing, feeling and doing, as if all the senses are in synchrony, working together, with fierceness and purpose.

That was Sister Marguerite Tierney, a beloved Sister of St. Joseph, whose eloquent funeral was this week. She had a way with words, didn’t mince them, said what needed to be said with compassion, concern and deep action. She fought for Justice, cradled the Underserved and had a zest and flair for life, expressed in her Artwork.

I’m always amazed how God creates each one so uniquely, like a tapestry, in order to reach people in their own special way. God bless her tender soul. She was a warrior who left a lasting impression.

At the funeral, on the Altar lay one of her masterpieces, as a gifted artist, to me, spoke volumes of her zest for life. I thought it should be shared, pictured below. If you experience the ripples of the tide, it’s hard to wade in the water and be still. Somehow I envision her dancing gracefully in the heavens in jubilation.
