FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT:
It is hard to believe that the holy season of Lent is rapidly drawing to a close for us. Next Sunday we will remember Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem as we celebrate Palm Sunday. (A reminder that the palms will be available at the church entrances for you to pick up on the way in to Mass and the palms will then be blessed at the beginning of Mass). As we do begin to think about the end of Lent, I do hope and pray that this Lent has indeed been a time of spiritual renewal and refreshment for you and your families.

In our readings today, we come across a question that a group (the Greeks) asked Jesus’ disciples. It is a question that perhaps many of us have thought of, or perhaps even asked: we would like to see Jesus. Have you ever thought how much easier faith would be if we had Jesus standing right in front of us; that is if he was actually physically present right before our eyes. Then we could not only see him, but also fire all our questions and our prayers directly at him. It would be great!

As we hear in the Gospel, two of the disciples, Andrew and Philip go to Jesus and relay the request of those who want to see Jesus. The reply of Jesus may seem strange or at least disconnected with the request. Surely Jesus would have just said yes or no. Instead, he seems to give a rather mysterious answer; talking about how the time has come for him to be glorified and giving the image of a grain of wheat dying in order to yield a harvest. We can imagine Andrew and Philip scratching their heads, looking at each other in a puzzled way and then saying one of those rather uncertain and hesitant “okays” that is just as much a question as an affirmation!

Yet, our Lord’s answer is so important, especially as we get closer to Holy Week and Easter. We should not forget that the incident related to us in the Gospel today is just before the great events that we will remember from Palm Sunday onwards. People will indeed see Jesus; but not as they may think or even wish. They will see him suffering and then crucified; but then they will see him risen and glorified. When people see all this, some will run away, others will mock, others will feel sorry for Jesus. Yet then others will come to faith and belief: they will really see Jesus, not only with their eyes, but with the eyes of faith.

What about us? Well, we do see Jesus in many ways, especially when we too look with the eyes of faith. How so? We see Jesus when we hear the Scriptures and take their message to heart. We see Jesus when we pray and place ourselves in his hands. We see Jesus when we celebrate the Eucharist and receive the body and blood of Christ. We see Jesus when we encounter him in the sacrament of confession/reconciliation (by the way, do not forget this Tuesday, 24th March and the parish reconciliation service!). We see Jesus in our brothers and sisters, especially those in need (remember the words in Matthew chapter 25: “Lord, when did we see you?” and Jesus’ reply “when you did it to the least of these, you did it to me”).

Every day we hear many things and see many things. Let us keep an eye open for the many, many times that we will see and encounter Jesus. As we will soon begin Holy Week, let us keep a special eye open to seeing the Lord and all that he has undergone for us.

Fr. Anthony

Mass/Service Times
Mondays and Fridays
As mentioned at Masses last week, we are looking at swapping the days for the early Holy Communion Service and early Mass on Mondays and Fridays. We have made a few changes to the weekday Masses so far: adding a Mass at 9.00 am on Thursdays and also a 9.00 am Mass on public holidays. The additional service on Ash Wednesday at 12.15 pm seemed to be very popular as is the earlier time of 5.30 pm for the Vigil Mass on holy days of obligation. The swapping of times Monday and Friday would mean that there would be a Mass at 6.30 am on Mondays (rather than a Holy Communion service) and a Holy Communion Service on Fridays (rather than a Mass). Any thoughts or feedback would be much appreciated.

Fr. Anthony

On Thursday, March 26th, Laetitia Rhatigan, PhD will be guest speaker at our Mary’s Circle of Love meeting. Her topic is Extraordinary Women of the Bible...women who were used by God to lay the groundwork for God’s redemptive work in the world. The presentation will aim to connect, when possible, their experience with ours and discover timeless and universal truths about God’s interaction with us. Mary, Mother of God will be central to the presentation. Refreshments will be offered. Please consider joining us for this enlightening experience. What a beautiful way to celebrate Lent. We will gather in the parish center after the 9:00 AM Mass.

The Diocese has sent us the following communication:
As you are probably aware the General Synod of Bishops will be meeting in October to discuss various issues of marriage and family life facing the Church. This is a follow-up from the Extraordinary Synod that was held last October.

The Synod of Bishop’s Secretariat has asked that dioceses do a wide consultation to help prepare for this important meeting.

I am writing to inform you that the Albany Diocese has posted a survey on its website (www.rcda.org) to allow our people to participate in this consultation. There is also a cover letter from Bishop Scharfenberger addressing the Synod and the survey.

We will also have paper copies of the questionnaire available in the Parish Office.

Save the Dates

April 3rd — Good Friday At 7pm the Lifeteen Ministry will lead the Parish Family in praying the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ. Please bring your entire family to join us in this awesome prayer that is acted out and depicted by our high school teens.

March 22nd and 29th will be practices for any High School teen who wants to participate. It is an awesome opportunity to grow in understanding of this world changing event and to fall deeper in love with our Lord Jesus Christ. Come and join the group and experience something you have never done before.

April 25th— There’s a whole group of folks going to the THIRD Day Concert at the Palace Theater in Albany. If you and your family would like to attend with our group please contact the Lifeteen Office and let us know the number of tickets you would like.

This past weekend God Blessed, yet again, this youth ministry here at St. Ambrose as He guided and inspired a group of 60 teens and adults on a Confirmation Retreat we shared. Throughout the weekend He showed His love for everyone in so many ways but the best way was the sharing of the teens who stood up and stated they want to grow deeper in their relationship with Jesus and stronger in their faith. Thank you so much for all the prayers and support you give to our teenage Parish Family. Without your participation in this ministry there would be nothing for our children. Please continue to pray for them as they come to realize better the call God is putting on their hearts and the full and abundant life He offers them.

"God looks neither at long nor beautiful prayers,
but at those that come from the heart."

-St. John Vianney
The luck of the Irish was with St. Ambrose last week. Fr. Anthony won the top prize of a $5,000 tuition credit to share with families who could use some financial assistance. The Hanley family won the IPad and the Erano family took home the $200 cash prize. Thank you to all of the school and parish families who supported this fundraiser. It is deeply appreciated.

On March 7th, over 30 students participated in our first Odyssey of the Mind competition! Students were judged on their ability to creatively work together as a team. Congratulations to everyone!

Christ beside me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ within me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me.

We will be collecting Easter Candy baskets for children and the elderly. Please bring them to my office by Monday, March 23, so they can be delivered. Thank you in advance.

Witnessing young Faith in action
This past week I had the joy of speaking with the Confirmation Candidates, Leaders, the Team and others. I don’t often have the pleasure of seeing this Group in action.

I was so impressed with the Leadership, dedication of all involved and their commitment. It was both heartwarming and encouraging to see the future leaders of our Church in action. I wish them the very best as they will soon receive this important Sacrament. May the Holy Spirit guide them their paths.

Live your beliefs and be an example of love in the world. Be compassionate.
Life is difficult, and people are often working through private battles. Demonstrate acts of kindness... “Little ones “are watching you and learning about compassion. Encourage someone today. Your words can lighten the heart of another. Be hopeful.
DURING LENT, POPE OFFERS HANDY TIPS FOR PREPARING FOR CONFESSION

By Carol Glatz
Catholic News Service February 28, 2015

VATICAN CITY — As Catholics are encouraged to make going to confession a significant part of their lives during Lent, Pope Francis offered some quick tips to help people prepare for the sacrament of penance.

After a brief explanation of why people should go to confession — “because we are all sinners” — the pope listed 30 key questions to reflect on as part of making an examination of conscience and being able to “confess well.”

The guide is part of a 28-page booklet in Italian released by the Vatican publishing house. Pope Francis had 50,000 free copies distributed to people attending his Angelus address Feb. 22, the first Sunday of Lent.

Titled “Safeguard your heart,” the booklet is meant to help the faithful become “courageous” and prepared to battle against evil and choose the good.

The booklet contains quick introductions to Catholic basics: it has the text of the Creed, a list of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Ten Commandments, and the Beatitudes. It explains the seven sacraments and includes Pope Francis’ explanation of “lectio divina,” a prayerful way of reading Scripture in order to better hear “what the Lord wants to tell us in his word and to let us be transformed by his Spirit.”

The booklet’s title is based on a line from one of the pope’s morning Mass homilies in which he said Christians need to guard and protect their hearts, “just as you protect your home — with a lock.”

“How often do bad thoughts, bad intentions, jealousy, envy enter?” he asked. “Who opened the door? How did those things get in?”

The Oct. 10, 2014, homily, which is excerpted in the booklet, said the best way to guard one’s heart is with the daily practice of an “examination of conscience,” in which one quietly reviews what bad things one has done and what good things one has failed to do for God, one’s neighbor, and oneself.

The questions include:

- Do I turn to God only when I’m in need?
- Do I attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation?
- Do I begin and end the day with prayer?
- Am I embarrassed to show that I am a Christian?
- Do I rebel against God’s plan?
- Am I envious, hot-tempered, biased?
- Am I honest and fair with everyone, or do I fuel the “throwaway culture?”
- In my marital and family relations, do I uphold morality as taught in the Gospels?
- Do I honor and respect my parents?
- Have I refused newly conceived life? Have I snuffed out the gift of life? Have I helped do so?
- Do I respect the environment?
- Am I part worldly and part believer?
- Do I overdo it with eating, drinking, smoking, and amusements?
- Am I overly concerned about my physical well-being, my possessions?
- How do I use my time? Am I lazy?
- Do I want to be served?
- Do I dream of revenge, hold grudges?
- Am I meek, humble, and a builder of peace?

Catholics should go to confession, the pope said, because everyone needs forgiveness for their sins, for the ways “we think and act contrary to the Gospel.”

“Whoever says he is without sin is a liar or is blind,” he wrote.

Confession is meant to be a sincere moment of conversion, an occasion to demonstrate trust in God’s willingness to forgive his children and to help them back on the path of following Jesus, Pope Francis wrote.
Gift Certificates for Easter Food Bags
The St. Ambrose Food Pantry Volunteers will again offer Easter dinner supplies for families in need. Market Bags will be available starting weekending March 1st. In addition to the food list attached to the Easter bags, gift certificates from Hannaford or Price Chopper in $5, $10 or $15 amounts would be most appreciated. These will be distributed according to family size for purchase of a meat choice. Please DO NOT PLACE GIFT CERTIFICATES IN THE BAGS. Please place in an envelope or drop off no later than March 22nd at the office or in offertory collection marked St. Ambrose Food Pantry or Easter Dinner. The number of families requesting assistance have increased a great deal; together we can help these families experience a most BLESSED EASTER.
