THE ASCENSION

This coming Thursday (14th May), we will celebrate the great feast of the Ascension of the Lord into heaven. We read in the Scriptures that forty days after Jesus had risen from the dead, he returned to His Father in heaven. It is one of those feasts in our church’s calendar that can easily pass us by, especially as we focus on other significant feasts such as Christmas, Easter or Pentecost. We could easily name hymns and carols for those feasts, but could we name a specific Ascension Day hymn? Yet, the Ascension is a key part of our faith and a key part of what is often called the “Paschal Mystery” (the whole of Jesus’ birth, life, ministry, suffering, death and resurrection). In fact, the Ascension is still celebrated as a holy day of obligation here in the Province of New York: this tells us that it is an important event!

First of all, Jesus returns to His Father in heaven, but he does not abandon us or leave us orphans. St. Augustine reminds us that: “just as Jesus Christ did not leave the Father when he came down to earth, so he will not leave us as he returns to his Father.” As the Preface of the Mass for the Ascension puts it, “the Lord Jesus ascended to the highest heavens…not to distance Himself from our lowly state, but that we, his members, might be confident of following where He, our head and Founder, has gone before.” So, Jesus continues His presence among us, especially through His Word and through the sacraments. A spiritual writer (St. Leo the Great) reminds us that the saving and life-giving mission, ministry and presence of Jesus Christ continues and now passes in to the sacraments: “the visible presence of our Redeemer passed over into the sacraments.”

Secondly, we need to remember that when Jesus rose from the dead on Easter Sunday, His human nature rose to new life (and, of course, through this share in human nature, we and our loved ones can share in the resurrection too). With the Ascension then, Jesus’ risen and human nature is glorified and ascends to heaven. The second reading at Mass speaks of what God has done in Jesus Crist, “…raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, above every principality, authority, power and dominion” (Ephesians 1: 17-23). This becomes the possibility and hope for us to be in heaven too. This is what the Opening Prayer at Mass says: “…for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body [by the way, this means us, the church, for we are the body of Christ!] is called to follow in hope.”

Finally, the Ascension also reminds us that we are called to be the presence and ministry of Jesus to others. That is why we all carry the name Christian. We are indeed followers and disciples of Jesus Christ and we are part of his body. This must not just be something inward looking or static. Rather, Jesus asks us to be his presence in the world and to spread the good news. We hear this in the Gospel for the Ascension where Jesus says: “Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them…teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” (Matthew 28: 16-20). We are to be like a mirror that reflects the face of Jesus Christ to the world and we are to be Jesus’ hands, his feet, his voice…his love. Perhaps we can reflect then on how we can be that presence of Jesus to others by what we say and what we do.

In the last few weeks, we have had our Parish Confirmations, First Communions, and we wrapped up our Sunday morning faith formation classes until the fall. Father Barratt will have a more thorough thank you list coming up in next week’s bulletin but I can’t adequately communicate just how much time and effort people have given to serve the kids in this parish in the last year. There’s so many people and there are so many sacrifices of time, money, and all kinds of support. It really is remarkable and I’m so unbelievably grateful.

The truth is that Jesus designed the Church to be everyone working together to make amazing things happen with His help. He did it then and He’s still doing it now. If you want to experience Him in new and powerful ways, I sincerely recommend getting involved. You won’t regret it.

I thank all the catechists and ministries from the bottom of my heart. Special thanks to Suzi Trzcinski (she heads up family life ministries), Deb McKown (our parish faith formation secretary), and Mark Trudeau (our youth minister) for working so hard.

Did you know....

- For one week every spring, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany offers formation classes and workshops for adults?
- These sessions are open to all interested adults whether they want to attend one session or several?
- The sessions usually range for about 2 hours each, beginning early in the day and going into the evening?
- Sessions are only $12 each and cover a wide array of topics: from Scripture study, to engaging the modern world, to best practices in ministry, to explaining various aspects of Church teaching?
- That presenters range from national speakers, to local church leaders (including the Bishop), as well as world-class academics?

Visit www.stambroselatham.com/spring-enrichment-2015 for more info and if you’d like to coordinate going with other members of our parish!
We have a new Logo from the National Lifeteen office. Do you know where the symbol comes from? Well take a look you might be pleasantly surprised.... This ministry was formed to help all teens feel welcomed and wanted within the greater church and to show them how much Jesus, Christ wants to have a relationship with them. And so the symbol come from the idea that relationship is critical part of this ministry and Jesus Christ will teach us all how to have strong healthy relationships with Him and with each other.

And through those relationships we can all move closer to Jesus Christ by sharing in the gifts He gave us namely the first best gift of Himself veiled in the Eucharist. Here Jesus Christ brings to us His Body, Soul and Divinity, truly present in what appears to be a simple piece of bread but in fact is Jesus. There is no more personal and intimate way to be with Jesus Christ than being present to Him and receiving Him. That is why our Church calls the Eucharist “the source and summit” of our faith. And then finally it is the image of the rose reminding us that we are consecrated to out Blessed Mother and that she watches over all we do; protecting us and praying for us.

I learned to love from my Mom. She witnessed a life style and free will choices to me in such a way that I could see that love requires an act of the will, love requires conscious participation in the good of the other; love requires sacrifice. It is a gift that comes from one and goes to the other where the giver has less and the receiver has more. She taught me that to love this way you must be refilled so that you can continue to love and that Jesus Christ is our source. Thank you Mom for this wisdom and witness to love.

Happy Mother’s Day

Do not think that love in order to be genuine has to be extraordinary. What we need is to love without getting tired. Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies.
—Mother Teresa

Altar Server Lector Retreat for anyone in High School.

Have you thought about being an Altar Server or Lector but wasn’t sure how to get started? Have you done it before but not for a while? Are you doing it now and want to continue?

Lifeteen is having a little getaway for anyone interested. Come one, come all to our annual Altar Server, Lector Retreat at Christ the King Spiritual Life Center in Greenwich, NY.

The cost is $50 per person. We'll leave on Saturday morning at 9am and return for Mass at 5:30pm on Sunday.

This is the perfect chance to grow closer to Christ while growing closer to understanding Jesus Veiled in the Eucharist. To know Jesus is to love Him. To love him is to serve Him. To serve Him is to know yourself.
At St. Ambrose School, we are “Learning to be all God wants us to be.”

Congratulations to our second grade students on receiving their First Holy Communion. May God bless you and keep you in the palm of his hand.

NURSES NOTES...
It is a known fact that children are influenced by what they see. I recall at a young age, the love and concern I saw shown to my elders, both at home and elsewhere. Our Elderly are such a vital part of society.

Erin Quirk’s Pre K class this week completed sweet little thoughtful cards made by her little ones for the Elderly. They were precious hand drawings made with love and care.

Altar Rosary is helping in this continued Parish-wide cause of compassion with the donation of soft fleece blankets, as an expression of a “Hug”, to the Elderly, Nursing Home Residents and ill. The best part of all this is giving them to people, and actually seeing the wonderful expression’s on their faces. It so reminds me of my Dad. Thank you everyone for your loving hearts.

PLEASE NOTE-
The Grief Group will gather on May 20th at 7pm in the Resource Room. All are welcome!
Please plan to join us Tuesday evening @ 7:00PM, May 12th as we pray the rosary in the Chapel and rededicate ourselves to the work of the Blessed Mother through prayer and works of charity. As always, all are welcome!

Members — your invitation to our year-end Mass & dinner have been sent out. If you have not yet paid your dues for this year, please include the additional $10 with your payment. Thank you!
