THE POPE, THE WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES AND OUR READINGS THIS WEEKEND

Our readings today coincide so wonderfully with the visit last week of Pope Francis, most especially his presence at the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia. The Gospel we hear at Mass today gives us the basis for our own beliefs about the nature and purpose of marriage and the vital importance of the family for us and for our society. In fact, Pope Francis, like so many other popes that have gone before him, has repeated again and again these central and life-giving teachings about marriage and the family.

The Pope reminded us that we understand marriage, as a sacrament (and therefore not simply as a legal entity or as a right): is a partnership of life and love between a man and a woman. It is a special calling and one that God will bless with the gifts necessary to live out that calling. Hopefully, marriage fulfills that deep desire in us not just to be loved, but also to love: to give as well as to receive love. Pope Francis also reminded us that this vocation is so central to the health and life of our society. He often uses the image that Jesus mentions of “the leaven that causes the dough to rise”; that marriage and family life are indeed like the “leaven” in society.

A moving event at the World Meeting of Families occurred on Saturday evening. A number of families from all over the world came and gave a “witness” about their own experiences of marriage and family life. These families were not perfect families and they shared very movingly about their struggles and difficulties. However, they also shared about how their faith had helped them work through these struggles and difficulties, so as to grow stronger in love of God and of each other and how they had also taught them a greater compassion and understanding for each other and for others too, especially the needy. In this sense we had a practical lesson in how the family can be a “school in true humanity and love.” (If you have some time, do google these testimonies from the gathering in Philadelphia…they are well worth reading!). It was a reminder too, of our need to pray for families or family members who are struggling in some way and that we are called to try and help them in any way that we can.

During the homily at the Mass last Sunday in Philadelphia, Pope Francis also shared some of his own reflections and experiences of family life and the inspiration that married couples had brought to him. So, to conclude here is an extract from his homily (again, you can easily find the full text by looking it up on the internet)…

“…Faith opens a "window" to the presence and working of the Spirit. It shows us that, like happiness, holiness is always tied to little gestures. "Whoever gives you a cup of water in my name will not go unrewarded", says Jesus (cf. Mk 9:41).

These little gestures are those we learn at home, in the family; they get lost amid all the other things we do, yet they do make each day different. They are the quiet things done by mothers and grandmothers, by fathers and grandfathers, by children. They are little signs of tenderness, affection and compassion. Like the warm supper we look forward to at night, the early lunch awaiting someone who gets up early to go to work. Homely gestures. Like a blessing before we go to bed, or a hug after we return from a hard day's work. Love is shown by little things, by attention to small daily signs which make us feel at home. Faith grows when it is lived and shaped by love. That is why our families, our homes, are true domestic churches. They are the right place for faith to become life, and life to become faith.

Jesus tells us not to hold back these little miracles. Instead, he wants us to encourage them, to spread them. He asks us to go through life, our everyday life, encouraging all these little signs of love as signs of his own living and active presence in our world. So we might ask ourselves: How are we trying to live this way in our homes, in our societies? What kind of world do we want to leave to our children (cf. Laudato Si’, 160)? We cannot answer these questions alone, by ourselves. It is the Spirit who challenges us to respond as part of the great human family. Our common house can no longer tolerate sterile divisions. The urgent challenge of protecting our home includes the effort to bring the entire human family together in the pursuit of a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change (cf. ibid., 13). May our children find in us models and incentives to communion! May our children find in us men and women capable of joining others in bringing to full flower all the good seeds which the Father has sown!”

Fr. Anthony
MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of St. Ambrose Parish, Latham, New York believe that, through our faith and baptism, we have been called to give witness to the values of Jesus as expressed in the gospel and teachings of our Church. As individuals and as a Parish Family we strive to:

- Develop our spiritual life, Spread the Gospel message,
- Respect the human dignity and rights of all persons
- Support family life: the role of married couples, singles, youth and children
- Share our time, energy, talent and resources

Strengthened by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to make choices and decisions that will reflect and give evidence of what we say we believe and value as a Catholic Christian Faith Community.

THE DAY CHAPEL:
A WONDERFUL ASSET FOR US!

At this busy time of the year, it is good to remember that our Day Chapel (to the right side of the church) is open for prayer during the day. Some people have asked about the “official” opening times for the Day Chapel and for the Church, so here they are…

The Day Chapel is usually open from 5.45 am Mondays to Fridays (except if there is something like a public holiday). The Day Chapel usually closes on weekdays at around 9.00 pm (except on Fridays when we have Eucharistic Adoration and the chapel is open until midnight).

On Saturdays, the Day Chapel is open from around 8.00 am until shortly after the end of the Saturday evening Mass (the main church is usually opened at 2.45 pm or so, ready for the celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation and then for the 4.30 pm Mass).

On Sundays, the Main Church and Day Chapel are open from around 6.45 am (or a little before) until after the 5.30 pm Mass.

The Day Chapel is a wonderful facility to have, especially as we have the Blessed Sacrament reserved there too; so please do make use of it if you wish. Call in, even for just a few moments of prayer, peace, focus and reflection on the way to or coming back from school, work, shopping, running errands or whenever you are just passing by the church. Those few moments will certainly not be wasted…!

Spiritual—Obedient—Involved

These three things are what make St. Ambrose youth ministry.
Spiritual because we center our prayer on the Eucharist and we source our strength from the same. We embrace the mystery of our Lord veiled in the Eucharist and begin our work with receiving Jesus at Mass.

We are motivated by Mary and the Saints to live out our faith by their example and through their intercession we are supported with Heavenly grace.

Obedient because we pay careful attention to the teachings of the Holy Spirit done through the Church in all her traditions, revelations and guided interpretations of Scripture. We assume a posture of learning and willful acceptance of truths as they are presented through the voice of the Church.

Involved because in order to fully realize the love our Lord Jesus Christ has for us we must create an outlet of sharing and sacrifice.

We need your help—are you a Handyman, Carpenter, Electrician, Plumber, Landscaper, Mason, Equipment operator or any trade, gift or skill you might have? Would you be willing to give a small part of your gifts and talents to help the poor in our area? St. Ambrose Youth Ministry is putting together a work force of gifts and talents to help the poor in our community and beyond. If you would like to be a part of this effort please contact the Lifeteen Office at 785-1351 x309 and ask for more information. You can also email us at youthministry@stambroseclatham.com or text us at 518-369-0213. There are many needs for skilled craftsmen and experienced tradesmen. You would be working to teach our youth, to serve our poor and to respond to the call our Lord God has put on us all to serve and to give so that others will know how much God loves them. Please be a part of this group. If you know someone who might be able to help please let us know. May our Lord Jesus Christ, our servant King, our friend; guide us and lead us to the people who need us most. And may we respond to that call and realize how much God wants for us to experience His love as one Parish Family.
The Medical Mystery of the depth of a “Broken Heart”

There have been some serious studies since 1991 about the capacity of the heart and the correlation of physical feelings that occur when one experiences the sudden loss of a loved one or illness and trauma. This was referred to as cardiomyopathy, known then as stress cardiomyopathy.

The capacity to love is so significant to life that the topic is now being taught to critical care staff to help them understand this. Some researchers now believe that this trauma can even be life threatening.

Traumatic events can leave one with a physical pain within the left cavity of the chest. What happens is the blood that pumps in and out of your heart becomes temporarily disrupted by a surge of stress hormones, which are secreted in response to the news.

Mayo Clinic researchers found that the contraction in your heart may be more than just a flicker of elevated blood pulsing through a valve; it may become fatal. Our family experienced this two weeks after my mother’s sudden death. While talking about my mother, my dad went into cardiac arrest. This was a shock. He was in previous good health, he walked daily and was active. The death of my mom was so traumatic.

Researchers say that in the study only 10% were males and the symptoms include sudden chest pain and difficulty breathing.

Over the last years, I have seen at least five cases of what could be this event. Thankfully, with open-heart surgery and advanced medicine, there can be a positive outcome.

As caregivers, and family members, one should be alert for silent signs of stress and unusual symptoms. As always seek the professional help of your physician.

The Albany Association of the Ladies of Charity is once again planning Coat Distribution Days, October 16 & 17 for the communities of Cohoes, Green Island, Waterford and Watervliet. Coats gently used, washed or cleaned, children through adult sizes are requested. Also needed are snow pants for children. You may leave garments in bins provided at the entrance of the church before Masses on the weekend of October 10 & 11. Please call Joyce Roman at 608-5744 if you have questions concerning the coat drive. Your continued kindness is greatly appreciated by these families.

Our September 10th meeting was great and so very interesting. Rosemary Armao spoke about West Albany and how wild it used to be with the gangsters that lived there and how tough it was growing up there.

Our next meeting will be October 8th at 10 a.m. We will play BINGO after our business meeting and then go out for lunch to the Red Front Restaurant in Troy. Don’t forget we are looking for new members, so bring a friend. Feel free to join us to see what we are all about. With some new members, we might be able to resume our day bus trips.

Fr. Anthony

Thank you! My heartfelt thanks to all of you for your warm welcome to St. Ambrose Parish last month and for your most generous collection to support the work we Maryknoll Lay Missioners do around the world. It was great to be “home” again in our Albany diocese and I really enjoyed celebrating with your wonderful community at all of the Masses! Now back in El Salvador I am working in our parish environmental ministry, trying to save the planet, or at least our little piece of it. And the people here have followed the visit of Pope Francis to Cuba and the US with great interest. We really are all one family in this common home called Earth. We will keep you in our prayers and hope that you also will pray for us. Thank you again for your generosity and many blessings to all. ¡Muchas Gracias!
