“Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” At that statement his face fell and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” - Mk 10:21c-23.

JESUS AND THE RICH MAN

The Gospel this weekend presents us with another very human and very touching story. We can imagine how the rich man comes running up to Jesus, perhaps slightly breathless with excitement and then puts his question to Jesus: “good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” We hear how he has tried his best to keep the commandments and to be a man of virtue and of integrity; but somehow, he must have felt that something was still missing or not quite right with his life. Pope Francis, in commenting on the Gospel makes this observation about the man: “…his heart was restless, because of the Holy Spirit that urged him to come closer to Jesus and follow him.” Notice too that it is a very earthed and practical question. The man does not ask some vague or simply philosophical question about the meaning of life. No! He asks simply: what he must do…?

What practical things can I do Lord…how should I act and behave…?

Jesus’ reply must have really surprised him and indeed shocked him: his face falls and he leaves Jesus and the disciples. We can imagine that he is not running excitedly now, but rather shuffling off with a dejected walk. The disciples too were taken aback, not least, perhaps, because, at the time of Jesus, wealth was seen as a blessing from God and not as an obstacle to a blessed life! The disciples would not have been able to comprehend how Jesus could say what he had said and that he seemed to be putting off this promising and desirable follower!

As we also hear, Jesus loved the man as indeed he loves us all, but Jesus must have also seen into the very soul and heart of the man. Perhaps our Lord saw that although the man was good and that he was trying to live a good life, he had allowed his wealth to get in the way. We might say that the man had somehow allowed his possessions to possess him. Again, as Pope Francis comments about the man: “…and he made the choice: money. A heart full of money...But he wasn’t a thief, a criminal: no, no, no! He was a good man: he never robbed, never! He never swindled: it was honest money. But his heart was imprisoned there, he was tied to money and he did not have the freedom to choose. Money made the choice for him.”

This attitude then had become an obstacle to him giving himself completely to God. Jesus challenges the man to make that final step to being a true disciple of his, but he is unable to do so. The man goes away saddened: in fact, other Gospel writers say that he went away “mourning”. Something had died inside him: the opportunity truly and completely to follow the master. We can contrast this elsewhere in the Gospels with a man like Zacchaeus who does make that final step and who makes restitution to all those whom he has cheated or exploited (see Luke 19: 1-10). Jesus rejoices in this and goes to dine at Zacchaeus’ house.

Our Gospel, as always, can be read at so many levels, but let us take it as a question and also as a challenge to us. We too might ask Jesus that very practical and important question “what must I do Lord…?” I think that our Lord might give us the same response as he gazes with love upon us, but also as he searches our heart and our soul and sees what really motivates us. He might ask us to get rid of whatever is a barrier or an obstacle to our truly and whole heartedly following him…What would those things be and how, with God’s help, do we plan to get rid of them so that we may indeed have life…?

THE DAY CHAPEL:
A WONDERFUL ASSET FOR US!

At this busy time of the year, it is good to remember that our Day Chapel (to the right side of the church) is open for prayer during the day. Some people have asked about the “official” opening times for the Day Chapel and for the Church, so here they are…

The Day Chapel is usually open from 5.45 am Mondays to Fridays (except if there is something like a public holiday). The Day Chapel usually closes on weekdays at around 9.00 pm (except on Fridays when we have Eucharistic Adoration and the chapel is open until midnight).

On Saturdays, the Day Chapel is open from around 8.00 am until shortly after the end of the Saturday evening Mass (the main church is usually opened at 2.45 pm or so, ready for the celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation and then for the 4.30 pm Mass).

On Sundays, the Main Church and Day Chapel are open from around 6.45 am (or a little before) until after the 5.30 pm Mass.

The Day Chapel is a wonderful facility to have, especially as we have the Blessed Sacrament reserved there too; so please do make use of it if you wish. Call in, even for just a few moments of prayer, peace, focus and reflection on the way to or coming back from school, work, shopping, running errands or whenever you are just passing by the church. Those few moments will certainly not be wasted…!

During the month of November, we traditionally pray for our family and friends who have died. We have some special “All Souls” memorial envelopes available. There will be two Masses offered (6:30am & 7:00pm) for all those named on 2nd November (All Soul’s Day) and each day during the month of November. Please use the space on the back of the envelope to write down the names of those you wish to be remembered and then place the envelopes with any offering you wish to make in the collection basket as it comes around at the weekend Masses, or leave the envelopes at the Parish Office or in the Sacristy. Please make sure that the envelopes are returned as soon as possible so that the names can be included in the Mass intentions. The envelopes will be placed at the altar during the month of November and those named on the back of the envelope are prayed for during Mass. There will also be a Book of Remembrance for you to write down the names of loved ones who have died.

On Sunday, 1st November during the 11.30 am Mass, we will have a special remembrance ceremony for all our recently deceased parish members who have had a Funeral Mass or liturgy at St. Ambrose during the last year (the annual “Healing of Memories Mass”). The ceremony will involve some special prayers, the reading of the names of the deceased parish members and the presentation of flower. After the Mass there will be a reception in the McCormick Parish Center. The families concerned should have received an invitation to this event, but if you have not please do contact the Parish Office as soon as possible. Also, if you have had a family member (from St. Ambrose or any place) who has passed away in the last year but whose funeral took place elsewhere, you are warmly invited to participate in the ceremony too. Again, please contact the Parish Office giving your name, the name of the deceased family member(s) and how many family and friends you estimate might be coming.
