THE ASCENSION

This coming Thursday (5th May), we will celebrate the great feast of the Ascension of the Lord into heaven (and it is a holy day of obligation). We read in the Scriptures that forty days after Jesus had risen from the dead, he returned to His Father in heaven. Yet, it is one of those feasts in our church’s calendar that can easily pass us by, especially as we focus on other significant feasts such as Christmas, Easter or Pentecost. We could easily name hymns and carols for those feasts, but could we name a specific Ascension Day hymn? Yet, the Ascension is a key part of our faith and a key part of what is often called the “Paschal Mystery” (the whole of Jesus’ birth, life, ministry, suffering, death and resurrection). In fact, as mentioned, the Ascension is still celebrated as a holy day of obligation here in the ecclesiastical Province of New York: this tells us that it is an important event!

So, why is it so important and what do we celebrate in this wonderful feast? Well, the Ascension is really about endings and beginnings (so it is also very fitting to have the feast at this time of the year when we think of the school year coming to a close, and of graduations and moving on for many of our children and young people.) There are really three key themes or elements that shine out in our prayers and readings at the Mass for the Ascension.

First of all, Jesus returns to His Father in heaven, but he does not abandon us or leave us orphans. St. Augustine reminds us that: “just as Jesus Christ did not leave the Father when he came down to earth, so he will not leave us as he returns to his Father.” As the Preface of the Mass for the Ascension puts it, “the Lord Jesus ascended to the highest heavens…not to distance Himself from our lowly state, but that we, his members, might be confident of following where He, our head and Founder, has gone before.” So, Jesus continues His presence among us, especially through His Word and through the sacraments. A spiritual writer (St. Leo the Great) reminds us that the saving and life-giving mission, ministry and presence of Jesus Christ continues and now passes into the sacraments: “the visible presence of our Redeemer passed over into the sacraments.”

Secondly, we need to remember that when Jesus rose from the dead on Easter Sunday, His human nature rose to new life (and, of course, through this share in human nature, we and our loved ones can share in the resurrection too). With the Ascension then, Jesus’ risen and human nature is glorified and ascends to heaven. The second reading at Mass speaks of what God has done in Jesus Christ, “…raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, above every principality, authority, power and dominion” (Ephesians 1: 17-23). This becomes the possibility and hope for us to be in heaven too. This is what the Opening Prayer at Mass says: “…for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body [by the way, this means us, the church, for we are the body of Christ!] is called to follow in hope.”

Finally, the Ascension also reminds us that we are called to be the presence and ministry of Jesus to others. That is why we all carry the name Christian. We are indeed followers and disciples of Jesus Christ and we are part of his body. This must not just be something inward looking or static. Rather, Jesus asks us to be his presence in the world and to spread the good news. We hear this in the Gospel for the Ascension where Jesus says: “that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations…you are witnesses of these things.” (Luke 24: 47-48). We are to be like a mirror that reflects the face of Jesus Christ to the world and we are to be Jesus’ hands, his feet, his voice…his love and, in this Year of Mercy, perhaps especially be witnesses of his mercy. Perhaps we can reflect then on how we can be that presence of Jesus to others by what we say and what we do.

MOTHER'S DAY

Sunday, 8th May is Mothers’ Day. As in past years, we have some special Spiritual Bouquet cards available at the church exits. These include a card (to send) and an envelope on which to write the name(s) you would like to be remembered and to place an offering inside (if you wish to do so). The intentions will be remembered during Masses on Mothers’ Day. Please remember to return the envelopes to the Parish Office or place them in the offertory basket as soon as possible so that the intentions can be included in the Masses. We will also have a special prayer and presentation for mothers at all Masses.

National Day of Prayer

This weekend is the 2016 Bishop’s Appeal Commitment Weekend!

Through this important Appeal, we follow the example of Christ to serve our brothers and sisters here in the Diocese of Albany. By joining together in stewardship, we proclaim our unity to all; thereby letting those who need us the most know that they are an important part of our Catholic family. Please be as generous as you possibly can in responding to the Bishop’s Appeal.

Sacristan Ministry

Like altar serving, being a Sacristan is a very beneficial way to help out your church community, and an active way to participate in Mass. Sacristans perform the following duties:

- Setting up the church before Mass. Typically, sacristans arrive at church half hour before anyone else. They light the candles, arrange the books, ready the linens and basically perform a little simple organizing before Mass begins.
- Prepare the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the Mass. This includes readying the wine, water and bread and putting them in place for the start of Mass.
- Coordinate all Mass participants, make sure Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers are ready.
- Cleaning the holy materials after Mass in the sacristy.
- Before the sacristan leaves the church everything is set back in its place and secured.

Decide if this is something you think you can do. Setting the table of the Lord is a ministry that is essential for the Mass. We are in need of sacristans for all Masses. Our schedules are flexible so after training you can let us know what Mass works for you. Our schedule is posted ahead several months at a time for your convenience. Please contact the Sacristan Coordinator Pat Rayball 708-9615 for more information.
Next weekend, the children of our parish will be making their First Communion!

A couple of things to think about...

- If you're a parent with a child making their First Communion:

  We're so excited for you! Everyone you meet here is excited for you. The Eucharist is how the Church sticks together. Whenever you and your family receive, we're all united to you and you to everyone else.

  Actually, that includes those people who are before God in Heaven. When we're at Mass, we're with God as well as everyone with Him. Even our loved ones who have died in His friendship are with us in the Eucharist. So are the Saints. So are the angels. It's a powerful bit of time when you think of it!

- If you're a parent of a child who has yet to make their First Communion:

  We're here to help with that...even if they are older! On one hand, we're there to teach them about the Eucharist so they can understand what they are doing. But on the other hand we also work hard to make the experience of preparing for the Eucharist a way for you to be a deeper member of your parish. From the beginning, the Eucharist was how Christians were in communion with both God and with each other. We hope this is a great community for you. Talk to other parents and see what they think and we’d love to talk to you too!

- If you'd like to make your First Communion as an adult:

  Just let us know...we're here to help! Again, ask around. Hopefully you'll hear how the Eucharist really moves our hearts and how we experience God in such a powerful way.

- If you're a parent of a child who has already made their First Communion:

  Hopefully, seeing the kids prepare can bring back some good memories. If your kids have been away from Church for a while, it's a good time to unite your prayers for them to the prayers of the community. Let us know how we can better reach out to them and make a better home for them here. They’re never far from our hearts. Their names are still remembered here in our records and in our prayers.

- ...and for all of us:

  Even if you don’t have someone in your life preparing for their First Communion, it’s worth trying to see the Eucharist from their perspective. They are excited. They are nervous. They are in awe. They are struggling to understand. They want to do this correctly. When you receive next, try to see it from their perspective. The Eucharist is God’s abiding Presence in the Church through the Body and Blood of His Son. It’s a big deal! Every time we receive the Eucharist can be a “First Communion” if we try to appreciate God’s greatest gifts with new eyes and a new heart. And it can really be that way! God is Eternal and even in Heaven He will be ever new to us. That begins now in the Eucharist!
The St. Isaac Jogues Youth Conference is coming this summer and it’s time to block out your calendar for this amazing event. If you are in coming into High School this fall or leaving High School this spring (and everyone in between) then you are invited to this incredible event. Forms and information are in the back of the Church for you to take and bring home. If you have been in years past then know this year is going to be the best ever and if you have not been then this is your year to experience the most amazing things about our Faith and how incredible it is to experience God in friendship and love. Be a part of this weekend and you will never be the same again. July 15-17, 2016 contact the Lifeteen Office for registration questions and additional info. 785-1351 x309

1 Peter 5:1-11

So I exhort the presbyters among you, as a fellow presbyter and witness to the sufferings of Christ and one who has a share in the glory to be revealed. Tend the flock of God in your midst, [overseeing] not by constraint but willingly, as God would have it, not for shameful profit but eagerly. Do not lord it over those assigned to you, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. Likewise, you younger members, be subject to the presbyters. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for: “God opposes the proud but bestows favor on the humble.” So humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your worries upon him because he cares for you.

Be sober and vigilant. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for [someone] to devour. Resist him, steadfast in faith, knowing that your fellow believers throughout the world undergo the same sufferings. The God of all grace who called you to his eternal glory through Christ [Jesus] will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you after you have suffered a little. To him be dominion forever. Amen.
THANK YOU!!!

Many thanks to everyone who participated in our annual Trash to Treasure Sale and Electronics Recycling Event.

The sale netted over $2,100 and the recycling event brought $700 in donations and two truck loads of recycled electronics.

Special thanks to Ms. Cathy Viola, Jordanna Turcotte and the Environment Club for all of their efforts.

Truly one man’s trash is another man’s treasure!

Pastoral Care

Spring is a time of renewal, flowers blooming and peace.

The gift of one being pastoral, is a sacred gift which is given by grace. It isn’t a job, the most important attributes really can’t be learned in a book or a Pastoral 101 course, it is something that is out word, forming from the heart.

A true gift of one self through compassion. Our Pastoral Care person has been all of that, “Ruth Lapierre”, a word synonymous with St. Ambrose. She has faithfully served just about every ministry, and so she has decided to take a step back and give others this opportunity to experience Pastoral Care and see God as she has.

She is fine, and will still be around as a wonderful resource, consulting advocate to assist Mrs. Verna Lewis, Chair of Pastoral Care who for years has had a active quiet ministry to those in need, bringing her peace and spiritual life experience to our community.

Please direct Pastoral calls to Verna through my office at 785-1351 Ext. 304.

Ephesians 2:8

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God.
