THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that the Trinity is at the “central mystery of our faith” (n. 234) and each Sunday we profess our belief in the Trinity when we say the Creed together: “I believe in one God, the Father Almighty…I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ…I believe in the Holy Spirit…” Yet, the Trinity is so hard to understand: now can there be one God, yet three persons at the same time? We are often reduced to saying that it is a “mystery” and leaving it at that. It is, of course, true that the Trinity is a mystery, but that word “mystery” actually means something or someone known and yet unknown at the same time (rather like people who we know and love and yet can never fully understand!). So, why is this mystery so important and what can we say about the Trinity? Perhaps some examples may help us…

The Trinity is ever-present in our lives and in our prayers. What is the first prayer that we learn? It is the sign of the cross which is really a prayer to the Trinity… “in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit…” Listen carefully to our prayers at Mass and you will hear how they are addressed to the Trinity. We often begin those prayers by speaking to the Father (“God”) and finish off with “through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit…” We baptize someone “in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” and during the Eucharistic prayer we ask the Father to send down the Holy Spirit so that the bread and wine may become the body and blood of Jesus. In other words, the Trinity is at the very heart of all our prayers and of the sacraments. As one writer puts it, the Trinity provides the “grammar” of all our prayers, rather like the way grammar works in a language to give shape and meaning.

Some spiritual writers have used everyday things or analogies to help our understanding. St. Patrick, of course, used the shamrock: three leaves yet making one leaf. Another image is that of water: one substance yet it exists as steam, liquid or vapour. Perhaps the best way to see the Trinity is as a community of love and a relationship of love. So, the Trinity is not a thing, or some sort of theological puzzle but real, active, ever-loving, ever-present and personal communion and relationship between Father, Son and Spirit. There is only one God and yet there are three, real persons: a unity and yet a diversity.

We can see this unity yet diversity in the missions and work of each person of the Trinity. After all, the names that we have for the three persons are relational names: “Father”, Son”, “Spirit”. The names are also active and dynamic: in a way they are not just nouns or naming words, but they are also verbs or words of action. So, the Father is creator, the Son is redeemer and the Holy Spirit is sanctifier. Each person has their distinct role and mission and yet they always act as one because they are perfectly one.

Well, perhaps all this is too much and we still feel mystified by the mystery! There is a true story of a famous preacher who gave what he thought was a pretty good homily about the Trinity on Trinity Sunday. Two parishioners came up to him after mass and thanked him for the homily. “We used to be so confused about the Trinity father” they said. The priest beamed and said, “so now you are not after the homily that I gave?” “Oh no father”, they replied, “we are still confused, but at a higher level….!”

What is important in the end is one last thing. God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit, invites us into this communion of life and love, into this relationship and into their mission. The Trinity then is perhaps not so much about knowing something about the very mystery of God, but rather of being with God and God being with us. It is like being invited into a family; to be part of a relationship and a community. The famous icon of the Trinity by the great icon painter Rublev makes this clear. The table is set with the three persons around it, but there is also an open place for another, that is for all of us. Through prayer, through the sacraments and in other ways, we are drawn into the very life of God. For such a wonderful gift, perhaps we can use another prayer to the Trinity as we simply say: “Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit…!”

Hello Friends,

Media Ministry DESPERATELY needs our help.

Our Parish is unique in that we are able to incorporate media as to better participate in the Mass. This also allows music ministry to be flexible and to allow the Holy Spirit to move the music we sing.

But Media Ministry can’t exist without volunteers who can commit. The handful of people left are overcommitted and stretched too far.

There is a commitment but it’s a rotating schedule and you would be able to plan ahead. If we have enough volunteers then you could coordinate a replacement for you when something comes up.

It is not difficult and we will give you training. Like all of our liturgical ministries, it can help you engage the Mass in a whole new way.

Please, PLEASE help. See page 8 for details and who to contact.

The words of Jesus in today’s gospel, “I have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now,” could have been said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.
