THE SAINT AMBROSE FESTIVAL 2016
COMING VERY SOON…!

In two weeks’ time (on Sunday, 25th September), we will once again be celebrating a great event in the life of the parish and school community, namely “the Festival”. We have been talking about this for a number of weeks now and many, many people have been very busy in preparing for the day. By the way, deepest thanks to all who are organizing and helping with the Festival: there is so much work, but then it is such a worthwhile project! We had a wonderful festival last year and I know that it will be the same again this year.

Once again, I would like to extend a personal and heartfelt invitation to you, your family and your friends to come along and to join in the festivities. The invitation is also extended in a special way to people you may know who, for whatever reason or no reason in particular, do not feel a particular connection with St. Ambrose parish and school, or the Catholic church in general. It would be truly wonderful if they could, to echo the invitation of the first disciples on meeting Jesus: “come and see.” In fact, a unifying theme of our festival (as with many things this year) is discipleship: what is discipleship and how can I be a disciple of the Lord…?

The various flyers, bulletin announcement and website entries give all the specific details about the Festival: times, activities etc. etc. I would like to share a few more thoughts with you about this idea of discipleship which is why we are having the festival and what it is about. Well, of course, like any good celebration, it is about many things. For one thing, we are a large community (of over 2,500 registered households) and we could say that we have many communities or groups within this larger community. There are all the various parish groups and activities, for example, as well as what we might call “Mass groups” (most parishioners tend to go to one particular Mass at the weekend). Often two people can meet at an event and chat together, then realizing that they are both St. Ambrose parishioners, but that they have never met each other as one goes to one Mass and the other person to another!

We are also part of a larger local community (such as the town of Colonie), as well as part of that wider community of the Roman Catholic Church. The Festival then is about celebrating and building up our sense of being disciples and of our common purpose, and so also of renewing our understanding that above all, our faith is about a relationship with God and being disciples of Jesus Christ. People often ask me about what my vision is as a pastor. For me, it really boils down to something simple yet challenging: to help others become disciples of Jesus and to help them deepen that relationship with him.

But there are more reasons for our festival…Of great importance too is the need not only to maintain and strengthen our parish and school in what we might call an internal way, but also to reach out to those who, in various ways, are more on the edge or outside. So, for example, although we have 2,500 registered households, not all of these, of course, regularly share in the gift of the Eucharist. Many surveys tell us again and again that the second largest religious group in the U.S.A. are so-called “non-practicing Catholics.” Do you know such people? I am sure that we all do, beginning perhaps with our families and friends (it is certainly true for me!). Would it be possible for you to at least invite these family members or friends to come to the Festival…? (I would invite mine, but it is a bit of a long trip for them to make!!)

There are also so many folks who, given the busy and pressured life and culture we live in with all the fragmentation or isolation that life can bring, who are desperately seeking out the spiritual. This should not surprise us as we are made in the image and likeness of God (as the Book of Genesis tells us) and so, to quote Saint Augustine, our hearts are restless until they find their rest in God. How can we reach out and welcome such dear people into the Church…? Well, perhaps the Festival might be a way for at least some. So, please let me repeat the invitation for you to invite at least one person you know who has that thirst for God, yet seems to remain “outside” the church, to come along to the Festival.

Many recent popes: Saint John XXIII, Blessed Paul VI, Saint John Paul II, Benedict XVI and, of course Pope Francis have repeated this call to reach out to those who are searching for the Lord, as well as to continue to deepen our own relationship with the Lord. May our Festival be one way that we can do this.

Fr. Anthony
ATTENTION ALL ALTAR SERVERS!!!

There will be a table at the Parish Festival, on September 25th, for anyone interested in becoming an Altar Server. There are some changes happening to the duties of Altar Servers beginning in October. In an attempt to have everyone ready for these changes, we ask that all servers attend at least one “Server Informational Meeting.” These are scheduled AFTER Mass on the following dates:

- September 10th/11th after 4:30 pm and 5:30 pm,
- September 18th after 9 am, September 25th after 11:30 am and again at 2 pm during the festival. Please join us!

We joyfully announce that Ethan Jeffrey Reynante was brought to the Baptismal Font during August and is now members of the Church.

Please remember in the charity of your prayers the repose of the souls of Ann R. Carvill and all those who will be remembered in Masses this week.

At St. Ambrose School, we are “Learning to be all God wants us to be.”

St. Ambrose School received a $7,500 grant from the Diocesan School Board to build a BE FIT 10 station fitness trail on the school property. This initiative is part of our goal to become a designated National Green Ribbon School based on our ecological sustainability, environmental literacy and wellness program. The school also received enough Google Chrome Books for every middle school student through the NYS Smart Schools Act.

This week marked the 15th Anniversary of the tragic September 11th atrocity which will never be forgotten. It always brings back a flood of memories as my husband and our dear friend, witnessed in Vienna and Yerevan, Armenia, as we were in route with relief efforts to the Children’s Cardiac Center in Armenia. It was such a turbulent time in both America and abroad, yet we were treated by those in the foreign lands with the utmost respect and Compassion. I will always love and respect those people. May the lives that were lost, remain deep within our hearts, resting peacefully in the Lord’s loving care.
