ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

It is hard to believe, but we are now almost in the month of November! It is often a busy month as we get ready for the great family event of Thanksgiving and thoughts also begin to turn to Christmas (and there are already plenty of Christmas things about, not least in the stores). We begin the month by celebrating the great feast day of “All Saints”. (It is a Holy Day of Obligation, so please see the Mass schedule for the times of Masses.)

We give thanks and honor to all those special disciples who indeed heard the Lord’s call and then bravely followed him. We can also remember that, as Peter Kreeft puts it: ‘‘the Saints are not freaks or exceptions. They are the standard operating model for human beings. In fact, in the biblical sense of the word, all believers are saints. All are holy…for they bear the image of God. Saints are not the opposite of sinners. There are no opposites of sinners in this world. There are only saved sinners and unsaved sinners. Thus “holy” does not mean “sinless” but rather “set-apart:” called out of the world to the destiny of eternal ecstasy with God.”

Our feast day is a powerful reminder of how we can also be inspired by the lives of the saints. We too have the same call and the same invitation and the Lord offers us the same help so that we can follow him. So, we are asked not just to admire the saints, but also to imitate them. November then is a great month to pick a saint each day and to read about their life so that we can imitate their example and so that we too can use well the gift of discipleship that we have received from the Lord. We too can be brave!

November is also, of course, the month of “Holy Souls”: when we traditionally think of all our family, friends and benefactors who have gone before us. To mark this time, during the 11.30 am Mass this weekend we remember all our departed brothers and sisters, especially those who have died in the last year and who have a particular connection with our parish of St. Ambrose. (Many thanks to all those who have helped with this wonderful and moving event!) A reminder too that we will also be offering Mass each day during the month for those on our memorial list (taken from the All Souls envelopes that have been handed in) and for those in our Book of Remembrance (this can be found in front of the ambo/lectern on the sanctuary). On All Souls Day (2nd November), we will have the usual 6:30 am Mass and an extra Mass at 9:00 am.

The tradition of praying for all our loved ones who have died is, of course, very ancient and it can be found in almost all cultures and places over millennia. The specific choice of November as the month for a particular remembering is also ancient: around a thousand years old or more. It can be a difficult time as we think of those who have had such an influence on our lives but who are no longer physically present with us: we can sorely miss them. So, perhaps we can share a few thoughts on why we have this special season and how it can help us in our everyday life and to encourage us to growth in faith.

There are many layers, both emotional and spiritual, to our annual remembrance of those who have died. We certainly celebrate our faith in life and in the life to come; in Jesus who is “the resurrection and the life” (John 11: 25). We can celebrate Jesus’ victory over sin and death and the promise and hope of our life in heaven along with those who have gone before us. This is why St. Paul says “do not grieve as the others do” (1 Thess. 4: 13). He does not say that we should not grieve at all: that would be ridiculous. Rather, we should not grieve as though we have no hope or faith in the life to come.

We also celebrate life: the lives of those who have gone before us and also our own life. This memorial season is a time when we realize both how wonderful and yet how fragile the gift of life is and how it is indeed a gift. God calls each one of us to use the gift of life that we have been given well: in love of God and of our neighbor, that is, to be His disciples. What happens to us in the life to come is determined by what happens in this life (as is so strongly put in Jesus’ words about judgment in Matthew 25: 31-46). As one spiritual writer puts it, “our future is now”. St. Ambrose writing all those centuries ago provided us with a great image when he wrote: “the Lord asks us to sacrifice present interests for the sake of eternal interests…in this way we purchase eternity with the coin of time.” Another image that can be helpful is that of our Christian life as a journey. This journey began in our birth and then our baptism and it will be completed when our life’s journey is ended. So, a fundamental question is: how well did we journey…?

This time of the year can be a real encouragement for us to discern what God is asking of us and so bravely to live our lives in His service to our families, our friends, our church and school community and to those in need. We can be inspired and guided by the saints and by all those special people we have known who have gone before us: family, friends, guides and mentors.

Let’s Consecrate Ourselves to Divine Mercy!
Bishop Scharfenberger invites you and the entire Diocese to experience mercy like never before, by our Diocese’s Consecration to Divine Mercy. To complete the Jubilee Year of Mercy, we can join him in a 33-day preparation period, beginning October 11, and culminating with Consecration to Divine Mercy at the Cathedral, Sunday, November 13, at 5 p.m. or on your own. We will use the book 33 Days to Merciful Love by Fr. Michael E. Gaitley, MIC. The daily reading takes 5-5 minutes and is pondered during the day. The 33-day preparation can be done alone or in a group. You can order the book via the website: www.shopmercy.org/albany.
Please consider joining our preparation group in the lounge Tues. Nov. 1 and 8 from 6:30-8m

St. Ambrose welcomes author, blogger, and speaker Eve Tushnet to share her story with our community and to offer us a positive vision of gay Catholics in the Church.

We’d like to welcome everyone to attend. We hope that this can be a great opportunity for individuals and families to reflect and begin a positive conversation that helps our LGBTQ friends, family members, and neighbors in the community to better find their home in Christ’s Church.

For more info, please contact Tom at 518-785-1351 x307 or at “EvangelizationAndCatechesis@stambroselatham.com”

About the book “Gay and Catholic”:
In this first book from an openly lesbian and celibate Catholic, widely published writer and blogger Eve Tushnet recounts her spiritual and intellectual journey from atheism to faithful Catholicism and shows how gay Catholics can love and be loved while adhering to Church teaching.

About Eve:
Eve Tushnet lives in Washington, DC, where she was raised somewhere between atheism and Reform Judaism. She cofounded her high school’s gay/straight alliance and entered the Catholic Church in 1998, during her sophomore year at Yale University. She is a freelance writer and a recovering alcoholic. In 2010, she was profiled in the New York Times “Beliefs” column.

Tushnet blogs regularly at The American Conservative and Patheos. Her work has been published by the Atlantic, Weekly Standard, Commonweal, and First Things, and she has written for the Washington Post “On Faith” blog and the New York Times “Room for Debate.” She has spoken on being gay and Catholic at Carnegie-Mellon University, Georgetown University, Princeton University, Fordham, among others. She has also addressed a group of campus ministers in the Diocese of Pittsburgh and spoken with Interfaith Voices, a syndicated public radio show. Our greatest gift to you is prayer. How can we pray for you today?

PRAYER TO KNOW ONE'S VOCATION

Lord, my God and my loving Father, you have made me to know you, to love you, to serve you, and thereby to find and to fulfill my deepest longings. I know that you are in all things, and that every path can lead me to you.

But of them all, there is one especially by which you want me to come to you. Since I will do what you want of me, I pray you, send your Holy Spirit to me: into my mind, to show me what you want of me; into my heart, to give me the determination to do it, and to do it with all my love, with all my mind, and with all of my strength right to the end. Jesus, I trust in you. Amen
At St. Ambrose School, we are “Learning to be all God wants us to be.”

CHEERS!

A special thank you to all involved with the Beginning Experience-Grief Loss Ministry of New York and Hudson Valley held at the wonderful Dominican Retreat Center. It was a full house and those attended were blessed with grace.

There will be another retreat in the Spring with information to follow.

A Very Special "Thank You!"

It’s been a very eventful week. We appreciate Pharmacist Kathy Fama and staff for your presence at St. Ambrose administering flu and pneumonia vaccines. Thank you for all who came, and for those who helped. It is very important to be prepared for the Flu Season.

In Memory

ALL SOULS AND THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

During the month of November, we traditionally pray for our family and friends who have died. We have some special “All Souls” memorial envelopes available. There will be two Masses offered (6:30am & 9:00am) for all those named on 2nd November (All Soul’s Day) and each day during the month of November. Please use the space on the back of the envelope to write down the names of those you wish to be remembered and then place the envelopes with any offering you wish to make in the collection basket as it comes around at the weekend Masses, or leave the envelopes at the Parish Office or in the Sacristy. Please make sure that the envelopes are returned as soon as possible so that the names can be included in the Mass intentions. The envelopes will be placed at the altar during the month of November and those named on the back of the envelope are prayed for during Mass. There will also be a Book of Remembrance for you to write down the names of loved ones who have died.

Sacristan Ministry

Like altar serving, being a Sacristan is a very beneficial way to help out your church community, and an active way to participate in Mass. Sacristans perform the following duties:

- Setting up the church before Mass. Typically, sacristans arrive at church half hour before anyone else. They light the candles, arrange the books, ready the linens and basically perform a little simple organizing before Mass begins.
- Prepare the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the Mass. This includes readying the wine, water and bread and putting them in place for the start of Mass.
- Coordinate all Mass participants, make sure Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers are ready.
- Cleaning the holy materials after Mass in the sacristy.
- Before the sacristan leaves the church everything is set back in its place and secured.

Decide if this is something you think you can do. Setting the table of the Lord is a ministry that is essential for the Mass. We are in need of sacristans for all Masses. Our schedules are flexible so after training you can let us know what Mass works for you. Our schedule is posted ahead several months at a time for your convenience.
