New Pastor Weekend!

Tom Acemoglu
Pastoral Associate for Evangelization and Catechesis

Once upon a time I worked for a music store and the company would sometimes have special “meet-and-greets” that were a chance to meet someone famous and make a big deal out of them. I got to experience a strange phenomenon that happens when people get around someone famous. Some people would get into hysterics, or feel nervous or embody pure anticipation. They might forget what to say or say entirely too much...all because this person was somehow supposed to be different than them. Without realizing it, these people (and I’ve been one of them!) were giving this famous person a gift and the name of that gift is glory.

Glory can be an expression of greatness to another, making a “big deal” like in the above. It can also be a self-serving, prideful celebration of one’s self. It can also be an honorable outpouring of greatness, either supernatural (like God’s greatness) or natural (like in the way our children can be the expression of the better parts of ourselves). It’s a word that we use a lot as Christians so it’s good to think about its meaning.

Jesus uses the word “glory” in today’s Gospel in a way that can show us how this greatness is both found in and shared between the Father and the Son: I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work that you gave me to do. Now glorify me, Father, with you, with the glory that I had with you before the world began. (John 17:4-5)

In all honesty, it is God alone who both deserves glory and exudes “Glory”. There’s really nothing greater than God. Every great thing done expresses His “Glory” and everything we offer back is to give Him glory.

This weekend we’re celebrating something great because we have a new pastor. It’s such a big deal! It reminds me of a story that Pope Benedict XVI once wrote about regarding the day he was ordained as a priest:

We were invited to bring the first blessing into people’s homes, and everywhere we were received even by total strangers with a warmth and affection I had not thought possible until that day. In this way I learned firsthand how earnestly people wait for a priest, how much they long for the blessing that flows from the power of the sacrament. The point was not my own or my brother’s person. What could two young men represent all by ourselves to the many people we were now meeting? In us they saw persons who had been touched by Christ’s mission and had been empowered to bring his nearness to men. Precisely because we ourselves were not the point, a friendly human relationship could develop very quickly. (Milestones, pg. 100)

In other words, this weekend we are glorifying God. He’s heard our prayers! The person of the pastor embodies Jesus’ desire for the Church: a leader who lives with us, guides us and brings us the sacraments.

Pope John Paul II described the role of the priest among the people in this way:

What does it mean to be a priest? According to St. Paul, it means above all to be a steward of the mysteries of God. . .The steward is not the owner, but the one to whom the owner entrusts his goods so that he will manage them justly and responsibly. . .the priest receives from Christ the treasures of salvation, in order duly to distribute them among the people to whom he is sent. The treasures are those of faith [and] are meant for all. But, by reason of what Christ laid down, the priest has the task of administering them. (Gift and Mystery, pg. 72)

Fr. Kelly,...welcome! Thanks for your “yes” to Jesus in pursuing the priesthood. We’re excited for the gifts you’re bringing with you. We’re also excited to share our gifts with you. Most of all, we’re thankful to Almighty God for bringing you here. Let’s work together and glorify Him together!
Thank you for your generous response to the 2017 Bishop’s Appeal. The amount raised thus far is $72,647.40 with a total of 257 pledges and gifts. The vital ministries supported by this annual appeal depend on you and your generosity. Your gift helps St. Ambrose Parish pay its diocesan assessment of $152,989. Pledge envelopes are available in the church and donations can also be made online at: www.thebishopsappeal.org

Many thanks for your support!

Come and sit with me awhile....
This year we were so blessed to have 197 children in grades Pre-K—5 join us on Sunday mornings for faith formation. This program would not be possible without the help of our catechists who selflessly give of their time and talent with the purpose of bringing the youngest members of our community closer to Jesus. Many thanks to each of them and their families:

Bishop Edward Scharfenberger said of this youth conference —

”My hope is that it becomes the World Youth Day of the Albany Diocese”

Since it’s inception in 2006 this conference has provided an environment of spiritual encounter for now thousands of teens in our diocese. Some of which are now youth ministers both here in our diocese and in other states and areas. It is an invaluable enhancement to youth ministry and it can provide a place where someone can have a life changing experience with the God of the universe who comes to us, embraces us, loves us and leads us by His Holy Spirit into a world hungry for truth.

If you believe in the power of our teenagers to become the driving force within our church; if you believe that a relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ can empower people to embrace sacrificial love; if you think this kind of love is needed in our world, then consider supporting this conference in any way you can. There is nothing small about the call God gives us the share the Gospel of Good News and so

Be BOLD Be CATHOLIC

Ways you can support the conference

If you do anything let it first be prayer; let it best be prayer; let it always be prayer. This conference does nothing without prayer being the central effort and continual support of any decision or action. Please join us in praying that this conference remain guided by the Holy Spirit and strive to be the excellence of our Catholic faith and the love Jesus Christ puts on our hearts to share with all we encounter.

Invite teenagers! Everybody knows somebody. So invite them to attend and be a part of the most amazing weekend of their lives. We all wish for the future of our family, community, country and planet to be one filled with hope and charity. Well that begins with an invitation from you, a possibility from our youth, a promise from our Lord. Be a part of this calling to extend this love beyond our boundaries.

Volunteer as an adult! This conference has one critical component that does not appear in many places. We have committed ourselves to allowing every single youth who wants to attend to be able to go even if they have no money to pay the expenses. And there are many expenses. How do we do it? By God’s grace and the call He puts on the hearts of people willing to work as volunteers for the conference. It takes many people (over 125 each year) to make this conference happen. It is divided up into ministries that vary from Sacramental Ministry, Food Ministry, Security Ministry, Transportation Ministry and many more. All of these are available to you. Please go to the St. Isaac Jogues Web site, register and see what God may be calling you to do.

Donate or Sponsor a teen The reality is there are families, teens, others who desperately want to attend; who need to attend this kind of event. By our first best effort of prayer we humbly submit to you the idea that you could help keep this massive volunteer effort affordable to as many youth as possible. If this is how you would like to help then please view the web site listed above and see what an amazing difference this conference has made in the live of our youth. Then contact us and let us know how you would like to help.
At St. Ambrose School, we are “Learning to be all God wants us to be.”

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of St. Ambrose Parish, Latham, New York believe that, through our faith and baptism, we have been called to give witness to the values of Jesus as expressed in the gospel and teachings of our Church. As individuals and as a Parish Family we strive to:

- Develop our spiritual life, Spread the Gospel message,
- Respect the human dignity and rights of all persons
- Support family life: the role of married couples, singles, youth and children
- Share our time, energy, talent and resources

Strengthened by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to make choices and decisions that will reflect and give evidence of what we say we believe and value as a Catholic Christian Faith Community.

Prayer for the Fallen

God our creator and sustainer,

today our country brings to our memory

those who have defended this nation in times of trouble.

They have sacrificed their lives to protect our shores

from those who would limit our freedoms or enslave us to ways that are against your will.

Bring all those who have died in service to our country into your heavenly presence.

We humbly call down your blessing on those still serving;

grant your heavenly protection to these men and women, and open your Sacred Heart to give them peace and comfort.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.
