“The Parish Community of St. Ambrose Church”
“What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid…” Friends, these lines from today’s gospel speak volumes about the way that God communicates to us and what we are to do when He does so. For only in the silence, when we aren’t distracted by all that we surround ourselves with, does the Lord really have the opportunity to speak to us. And it is all with a purpose, not to be kept to ourselves, but rather put into action, spoken loudly and with confidence…and most of all, to be done so without fear.

We hear of people going on retreats, visiting a monastery perhaps, seminary grounds, or even just some place of isolation to spend time with the Lord without the chance for interruption. All with the purpose and opportunity to give the Lord our fullest attention, to allow Him to speak deep into our hearts. For once there, that is the place we begin to truly listen, not from just our ears or other senses, but deep within our hearts where we know the Lord always dwells. But we know how difficult this is to even accomplish, for it can take so much for us to truly shut everything else out and center ourselves enough for us to hear God’s whisper amongst the shouts of society. And this may even feel like an impossibility with all that we feel we have to or need to actually do each day in order to live in the society we do, to survive, to provide for our families or maybe even just to simply get by. But here’s the point, if we honestly look at our days, our schedules, we make time for what matters most to us. We make time to go for coffee, we make time for our routines, we make time for anything that we feel we need each day in order for our day to go the way we want it to. So we need to ask ourselves, where does the Lord fit into this? Is He one of those priorities…if not, how can He become one? For we can still find time to listen to the Lord, to cut out everything else without going away to some dedicated place that would pull us away from our day to day. We can always start small, incorporate Him into our everyday work and interaction with others, all it takes is our willingness to listen to that part of us within that longs to be connected to the Lord who longs to be connected with us. Maybe we can find 10 minutes to stop in the chapel that is open each day. Maybe we can find a place of isolation in our homes when we close the door behind us. Or maybe it’s as simple as us making time by just simply going out for a walk and speaking to the Lord and listening. The important thing to ask ourselves, is do we actually do that? Do we make a set time just for the Lord? If the answer is no, then how can each of us change that. For the Lord speaks to us in a whisper…He speaks to us in the darkness when we turn out all the distracting “outside lights” that we let in.

And when we do we aren’t done quite yet. For when we do listen, when we hear His voice and command, what do we do then with it? Sure, there are things that the Lord speaks to us that are meant to console us, to comfort us, to strengthen us and to be kept within just for ourselves. But many times, God has a purpose for what He tells us, to go out and do something or say something. To be His voice, hands and presence to the world. Leaving us to ask ourselves, what do I do when God speaks to me? So this week I encourage each and every one of us to seriously pray with this, Do I listen not only to what the Lord says, but from hearing that whisper, what do I then do next?

Fr. Brian Kelly

Thursday June 29th is the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul

Tradition says that Saints Peter and Paul were martyred the same day, around the same time in Rome.

Peter, the fisherman of the Sea of Galilee, who denied knowing Jesus three times but had rushed out to Him when He walked on the same water he once worked in, was also sentenced to die by crucifixion. Because Peter felt unworthy to die as His Lord did, he demanded to be crucified upside down.

Paul the Pharisee and persecutor of Christians who, despite his history, was chosen by Jesus to announce the Gospel to all those who weren’t born to the nation of Israel. He was allegedly sentenced to death for converting the Emperor’s favorite concubine and beheaded.

Even though they weren’t great by the world’s standards, God chose to be glorified through them in their witness to His Son Jesus. Saints Peter and Paul: pray for us!

Teaching the faith is much bigger than a classroom.

Faith Formation begins Sunday, Sept. 10th and we’re looking to talk to you about being a catechist or a helper. You might not feel like you know enough or feel qualified enough. Maybe you feel like you have nothing to offer. If that’s you, please talk to us and see if we can’t change your mind!

We provide materials and guidance. We also believe that we offer a different way of teaching the faith that’s bigger than a classroom and incorporates the whole family.

Dear Parents, Colleagues, and Friends,

Today I write to you with a heavy heart. As many of you know, I have struggled with Multiple Sclerosis for several years. In recent consultation with my neurologist and my family, we all feel the demands of being a principal has impacted my health. Therefore, I will be stepping down at the conclusion of this school year.

This has been a very difficult decision to make as I absolutely love the staff, students and families of the St. Ambrose community. Having the privilege to complete my career in Catholic education here with you has been a tremendous blessing to me. Words simply cannot convey the joy and gratitude I experience each day interacting with the students, teachers, parish staff and families.

Our Pastor, Fr. Kelly, and Superintendent, Giovanni Virgiglio, will begin the process of selecting a new administrator immediately. I am confident they will find just the right person to lead St. Ambrose School into a bright new future.

I will surely miss all of you but know that you are forever etched in my heart. As I said to the children in Morning Prayer yesterday: “I hope you know God loves you exactly the way you are and for all you can be, Jesus will always be your friend no matter what, and I will love you forever and ever.”

With heartfelt gratitude,

Terri McGraw
Principal

What a week. Such a complex state of emotions. The anniversary of my Dad’s death, Father’s Day, so bitter sweet. The farewell of our Grief Counselor Bernie, Amyot, who served here for 17 years, so faithfully, leaving due to ill health. So many losses here in our Community.

I think 5 funerals this past week. The sudden loss of our former maintenance worker, Shaun Roy, who was so good to all the staff here, and Liberty Arrobang-Gonsalves, a beautiful young mother of a small child, that I’m sure many would recognize her humility and fervent Christian witness at Mass. Today Mac Pais was laid to rest, another faithful servant who tirelessly ran the Extra Helpings Program with his beloved wife Betty.

There are no adequate words to try to comprehend such losses, especially to all of the surveyors whose lives will be forever changed.

It is during all these times we need our God, to strengthen and support some of the hardest days of life. When shock and disbelief occur, one may not seek the help of God. I remember a dear Priest friend saying to me, “if you have difficulty praying, that’s where your friends come in to pray for you.” I remember what a relief that was for me.

May all the Souls of the faithful departed rest in the arms of the Lord and Blessed Mother.

Prayer of Hope
AS THE DAY DRAWS NEAR, COMFORT THE SORROWFUL. GIVE STRENGTH TO THE WEARY. GIVE HOPE TO THE YOUNG. MAKE EACH NEW DAY A PROMISE OF YOUR LOVE AND PROTECTION. AMEN...

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Jesus says “Do not be afraid” three times in today’s gospel and reminds us “all concealed secrets will be revealed.” Do not be afraid to acknowledge problems in your family. If they remain “hidden in darkness” they will “destroy body and soul.” Healing, understanding and hope are found only “in the light” of openness. “Do not be afraid.”
