Deepest thanks for your continued and generous support for our parish. Your gifts enable so much to be done in so many ways.
After finishing Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick (a class favorite!), 5th and 6th grade were given their final assignment for 2018:

I asked the students to create their own “movie posters” based on any novel or short story we’ve read this year.

The students were encouraged to be as creative as possible. They could make up their own title, and cast their own actors and director(s).

To supplement their artwork, the students were required to write at least 2 paragraphs on the creative changes they made to their piece, along with why they chose to make these changes and what they thought it brought to the artwork.

The Movie Posters Include Renditions Of:

...Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick
...A Long Walk to Water by Linda Sue Park
...The Necklace by Guy de Maupassant
...Charles by Shirley Jackson
...The Magic Moneybag a Korean folktale
...The Lady or the Tiger by Frank R. Stockton

Sixth grade has now begun reading Chains by Laurie Halse Anderson, as we strengthen our knowledge on the Civil War and slavery. Fifth grade is finishing up Wonder by R.J. Palacio, and will soon begin reading the Lightening Thief by Rick Riordan.

Food Pantry
The Food Pantry served 92 households in December. This included 195 adults and 128 children. As always the generosity of St. Ambrose parishioners is deeply appreciated and helpful. The ongoing need is great and all food and monetary contributions are much appreciated as we strive to feed the hungry in our community.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS SCHEDULE
We have begun using Ministry Scheduler for those who serve at our weekend Masses. By now lectors, sacristans, media ministry and ushers should have received an email of their schedule for serving (Eucharistic Ministers will be joining this scheduling in April). If you have not received a schedule via email, please contact Darrin in the parish office.

REVISED Schedules 1-2-19 can be found outside the sacristy as well as online on our parish website.
