BULLETIN ARTICLE DUE DATE REMINDER

If you have an article for the Bulletin—please email it to Joan.Welch@rcda.org by Wednesday of the week before.
Prek3-3 had a fantastic school year filled with a lot of growth and development both academically and socially. We worked hard each day on those skills to prepare us for future grades and how to get along with others. Most importantly, we learned about how God created the world out of everything HE created, WE are His favorite creation! We learned it’s okay to make mistakes and if we do, all we need to do is ask for forgiveness and try to do better the next time. We had a fun year-end pizza party out on the playground with our families, and had a super fun time playing games at our annual Field Day. We have been counting up to the 100th day of school and then counting down to our last day of school which is hard to believe is next week! Thank you to all the parents for choosing to start your child’s education off at St. Ambrose School! I look forward to welcoming new friends to our St. Ambrose community next year! Have a fun and safe summer!

Church Office will be closed on Thursday, July 4th & Friday, July 5th.

Donations Continue

We are still collecting used eye glasses, cell phones/chargers and pill bottles (no pills inside please, no patient information due to HIPAA, over the counter medicine bottles are okay)!! We partner with Calvary United Methodist Church who also helps us out with our food pantry! Please give all items to the Ushers. Thank you for helping those in need!
Ministry Spotlight
Formation and Evangelization

RCIA
Baptism
Rite of Confirmation
Catholic
Initiation of Adults

The RCIA is a process, which reaches out to people inside and outside of our parish, inviting them into a closer friendship with Christ. This process is for those unbaptized, those baptized in other faiths, and those baptized Catholics desiring full communion with the Church. RCIA allows parishioners to listen, encourage, and support others. It calls us to be welcomers as a community as sponsors, small group facilitator, catechists and team members. Bringing others to God, through Christ is the work of ALL Christians. We invite and encourage you to share in this ministry through the RCIA process. Contact Tom.Acemoglu@rcda.org or Robyn.Spateholts@rcda.org or 518-785-1351.
