“Pray for one another.”
James 5:16
Our first graders have been praying for the first graders at St. Mary’s School in Ballston Spa every day since school began in September. Each student in Mrs. Estep’s first grade class received a name of a first grader from Miss Lance’s class at St. Mary’s School to be his/her “prayer buddy” for this year. The students have been writing to each other and hope to one day meet in person!

Paint a beautiful fall scene with our school art teacher Sister Vivian. Appetizers and desserts will be served; bring your favorite beverage. Seating is limited. Price is $35 per person. Register on our website www.stambroselatham.com

Wear your best dress and bring your favorite doll to share in the fun at our royal tea party.
Sunday, November 3rd from 12:30-2:30 in the Parish Center
Lunch and dessert will be served. There will be raffles, auction baskets, vendors and kids crafts. Tickets are available on our website www.stambroselatham.com
Look for the Princess Tea Banner!
UPCOMING EVENTS

Ladies’ Night and Bible Study join forces... all are welcome!

Come meet the three women who will transform your spiritual life: St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Theresa of Avila, and St. Teresa of Calcutta! (Thursdays, November 7-21, 6:45PM in the Parish Center)

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT: ALTAR SERVERS

All children that have received their First Communion are welcome to become an Altar server. Children will learn what is happening at Mass, feel more involved in Mass, and gain an understanding of how important it is to serve others. This rewarding ministry provides support during all our liturgies and worship. Stop in the Sacristy and see Fr. Kelly for more information.
