Dear St. Rita Community:

Today, as cleaning continues, and as we prepare for a few strange weeks, I wanted to update you on changes to our schedule at St. Rita going forward through this next week.

What to do this Sunday?

As you know, the Bishop has suspended public Masses through March 30. Tomorrow, however, you can watch Mass at the Cathedral at 9:00am in English and 10:30am in Spanish. To watch online, simply click here. Also, on our Facebook page, we will also post resources regarding Spiritual Communion. My counsel is that you take time as a family, or by yourself, to spend time in prayer, making an Act of Spiritual Communion. Also, a selection of our homilies will be available online tomorrow too, on our webpage and via our social media platforms. Also, I have a personal website (<http://fatherjoshuawhitfield.com/>) with many of my past homilies online.

Next week, after I regroup with my team, we will offer media ministry more uniquely from St. Rita.

What will be available next week?

The School and all events remain cancelled next week. The church, however, will be open each day for prayer. Also, we will expose the Blessed Sacrament on the Altar from 9:00am to 7:00pm each day Monday, March 16 through Friday, March 20 if you'd like to come pray before the Blessed Sacrament. Likewise, on Thursday, March 19, Fr. Michal and I will be available for Confessions from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. We will also be available for Confessions next Saturday, March 21 at 9:00am. But again, remember: Do not come to church if you are feeling ill. Also, when visiting the church, please practice good "social distancing."

Have a blessed, albeit quite different, Sunday tomorrow! You all are especially in my prayers!

Yours, in Christ,

Fr. Joshua J. Whitfield
Pastoral Administrator
