Dear Parents/Guardians of MCS 8th and 12th Grade Students:

Graduation is 20 weeks away and as part of our school's plan to ensure successful preparation, here a few gentle reminders:

First, completion of required credits to graduate is necessary. Help us in supporting and encouraging your child to do their part to complete their homework, in-class assignments and projects, as tasked. Great job to those students who continuously do their work and demonstrate respect for subject and teacher expectations.

Second, attendance during instructional time: 7:30 AM – 3:00 PM on Mon. Tues. Thurs. Fri. and 7:30 AM – 1:50 PM on Wednesdays, or unless otherwise adjusted by the School for events, is critical. Attendance expectations are referred to in more than one place in the MCS 2019-2020 Handbook. On pages 38 – 42 specifically, MCS has outlined the Attendance Procedures as a rule. Your cooperation and support with this matter is important.

Third, as stated in the MCS SY2019-2020 Handbook, page 88, and in preparing in advance, please note the required attire for both boys and girls. Only those colors listed will be allowed:

Male Graduates (for the Baccalaureate Mass and Graduation) are required to wear:

- White long sleeve shirt
- Black dress pants
- Black dress socks and Black shoes (NO casual shoes)
- Black long necktie
- Gentlemen must have well groomed hair for this day.
- Earrings are ABSOLUTELY not allowed...

Female Graduates (for the Baccalaureate Mass and Graduation) are required to wear:

- Plain White or pastel colored dresses (NO PANTS).
- Dresses should go below the knee, but not longer than the gown when standing.
- White shoes or sandals with strap in the back.
- Natural color stockings.
- Jewelry may be worn, but earrings must be posted on the earlobe and may not hang or dangle. Other forms of jewelry must be tucked away from view.
- Hair must be worn away from the face because of the cap that will be worn...

Sincerely in Christ,

Barbara Merfalen
Principal
