

Breaking Open the Word

May 3, 2015 Fifth Sunday of Easter Lectionary: 53 Gospel Jn 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

Spiritual Reflection: Saint Irenaeus of Lyon said that "The glory of God is person full alive."

Spiritual Questions

1. How does being "fully alive" and being "bearing much fruit" come together?
2. Why is the glory of God a person "fully alive"?
3. How does God benefit from you being "fully alive"?
4. How does Jesus demonstrate this principal?
5. Notice the difference between "remain in my love" and "earn in my love."
