

November 24 2019 // The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe // Lectionary: 162 // Gospel LK 23:35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine, they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Spiritual Reflection: We all believe a king giving up his throne for love of his bride is truly romantic. How about God giving God credit for suffering all He endured to save us?

Spiritual Questions:

1. How is being a king a good image for God?
2. How is being a king a bad image for God?
3. How is God a better king than most fairytale kings or tyrants?
4. How does the "good thief" make it into heaven?
5. What is paradise to you?
