

May 17 2020 → Sixth Sunday of Easter → Lectionary: 55 → Gospel JN 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Spiritual Reflection: Having a good advocate embolden the early Apostles to even face death for their faith.

Spiritual Questions

1. Have you ever considered how much concern God has for you?
2. Why does God care for you?
3. Do you pray to the Spirit for enlightenment and inspiration?
4. How do you put yourself into the presence of God before you begin praying?
5. Why is it better for the Spirit to come than Jesus to remain?
