May Prayer Intentions of the Holy Father, Pope Francis

That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for this continent.

Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please fill out a visitor's card (found in the pew racks) and return it in the offering plate so we will have a record of your visit. And please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Our Lady of Walsingham receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

His Glorious Ascension

At every Mass celebrated with the Roman Canon, just after the words of consecration, the priest bids the faithful to remember not only Christ's Passion and Resurrection but also "his glorious ascension into heaven." Thursday we commemorate the great festival known in the Eastern Church as the Analepsis, the "taking up" of the Lord, which is also called in Greek the Episozomene, "the salvation," because Christ's Ascension effectively fulfills his earthly work of our redemption. Rounding out the Easter season and ushering in Pentecost, the Ascension completes our liturgical observance of the Paschal mystery.

In Christ's glorification, we rejoice in the elevation of our human nature. He Who was lifted up into heaven has made us partakers of His Divinity. The Ascension is the final act of triumph in the drama of Our Lord's earthly life, and the beginning of His heavenly reign. The daily exhortation of the Church is that we should "lift up our hearts," and we can do so only in union with the ascended Christ Who grants us citizenship in heaven.

According to the General Calendar of the Latin Church and by ancient and universal custom, the solemnity of the Ascension falls on the Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter, exactly forty days after the Resurrection of the Lord. We are blessed in the Ordinariate to celebrate Ascension on its proper date this Thursday, even as the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston follows the practices in much of America of transferring the observance to the Seventh Sunday of Easter.

One unfortunate effect of moving the Ascension from Thursday to the next Sunday is obscuring the precise biblical, liturgical, and devotional correspondences that link Easter, Ascension, and Pentecost. Jesus ascended into heaven forty days after rising from the tomb, having first commanded His disciples to dedicate themselves to constant prayer waiting on the Spirit (Acts 1:8). The Apostles, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and other followers of Jesus prayed together for nine consecutive days until the Holy Ghost descended upon them on the fiftieth day (pentekoste in Greek) after the Resurrection. These nine days of prayer from Ascension to Whitsunday are the prototype of all novenas and uniquely consecrate the Church, calling down upon its ministry the indwelling of the Holy Spirit the Paraclete as the culmination and abiding form of the New Covenant. Pope Leo XIII commanded that the ancient custom of the Pentecost Novena be observed in every parish church. More recently Pope John Paul II called for a worldwide novena leading up the Whitsun vigil to invoke the blessings of the Spirit on the Church as the sacrament of all humanity. Dr. Clint Brand

Summer Lecture Series: Catholic Social Teaching

Tomas Diaz will be offering a four part lecture series discussing the history and doctrine of Catholic Social Teaching. Discussing such topics as political action, economic practices, and social justice, the series will illuminate the long and rich history of the Church's wisdom on social matters and give us direction in living out our pilgrimage in the world today.

All 4 lectures will be in the Great Hall at 7 - 8:30 pm.

Bishop's Appeal 2019

The 2019 Bishop's Appeal is our opportunity to unite together as one Ordinariate family to support our shared mission of evangelization. Gifts to the Bishop's Appeal support ministries that cannot be accomplished by one parish or parochial community alone, including: the development of new parishes; Bishop Lopes' visits to the parishes of the Ordinariate; communication outreach; and more! Please help our community meet or exceed its 2019 goal of $72,000 to the Bishop's Appeal. After two months we have a total of 111 families who have pledged $61,568. Thank you to all who have made this commitment. If you have not yet made your pledge to the Bishop's Appeal, we ask you to do so today so that the Cathedral can complete our campaign. Pledge cards and envelopes are available in the Narthex of the Church or you can donate online at ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal. (Gifts should be made payable to the Ordinariate.) Gifts to the Bishop's Appeal support ministries that cannot be accomplished by one parish or parochial community alone. Together, we can meet the escalating needs of our growing Ordinariate!
