Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please fill out a visitor's card (found in the pew racks) and return it in the offering plate so we will have a record of your visit. And please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Our Lady of Walsingham receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Prayer Intention of the Holy Father, Pope Francis

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

Bishop's Annual Appeal Can you help us meet our goal?

The key ingredient to the success of the Bishop's Appeal is participation. To reach the Ordinariate goal of $330,000, your participation is important! Our parish has a goal of $74,000 for this year's appeal.

As we continue in the season of Lent, please consider a sacrificial commitment to the Bishop's Appeal and to our work together in the service of our Lord. Help Bishop Lopes and your Ordinariate family meet the challenges we face in reaching out to all those who seek the fullness of faith and to build a culture of evangelization. Visit ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal or return the pledge card and envelope provided this week in the narthex to make your gift. (Gifts should be made payable to the Ordinariate and mailed directly to the Ordinariate.) Thank you!

Lenten Veiling & the Litany in Procession

Summoning the faithful to penance, the Sacred Liturgy in the season of Lent breaks with routine and reorders what we see, what we hear, and how we pray at Mass: flowers disappear from the altar, the music is more somber, the Gloria is not sung, and Alleluia is not heard till Easter. In addition, at our parish, images and statuary are veiled throughout Lent, and special penitential notes punctuate the liturgical action.

In medieval England, it was customary for the duration of Lent to shroud all statues, crosses, and altars in the “Lenten array” of unbleached linen. By the seventeenth century, throughout the Latin Church, images were commonly veiled in purple from Passiontide until Holy Saturday. Our tradition at Our Lady of Walsingham is to combine both customs: from Ash Wednesday on, everything is veiled in violet, save the Calvary at the High Altar and the Stations of the Cross; on Maundy Thursday, white veils replace the purple; and on Good Friday all is shrouded in black. While the veiling of images represents a kind of visual “fasting” by which we forego gazing upon sacred depictions to contemplate Christ’s Passion with the interior eyes of the soul, the practice also reminds us of Jesus’ humiliation. In His suffering and death, He concealed His divinity--“Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple” (John 8:59)--and we wait therein mourning till His Resurrection fills the house with the glory of the risen Lord and all His saints.

On the First and Fifth Sundays in Lent, we follow the customary of the Ordinariate Missal by beginning the principal Sunday Mass with the Litany chanted in procession. Thus we continue the venerable tradition of the medieval Sarum Missal; thus we honor the first part of the Latin liturgy to be translated into English in 1544; and thus we preserve one of the glories of the Anglican Prayer Book, now restored to the fullness of Catholic worship. The Litany sung in procession sends the faithful forth on their Lenten pilgrimage with the contrite strains of responsive supplication, moving powerfully forward with successive invocations, suffrages, and intercessory petitions, and leading directly into the Kyries of the Mass and to the Holy Sacrifice.
