Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please fill out a visitor's card (found in the pew racks) and return it in the offering plate so we will have a record of your visit. And please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Our Lady of Walsingham receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Prayer Intention of the Holy Father, Pope Francis

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

Bishop's Annual Appeal Help the Ordinariate Thrive

Your participation is essential to the success of the Bishop's appeal. While regular gifts to your Parish are important, your annual gift to the Ordinariate is equally important. Please join other Catholics from throughout the Ordinariate in supporting this campaign, which will help the Ordinariate grow and thrive! Pick up a pledge card found in the narthex today - gifts should be made payable to the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter - or visit ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal to give.

BABY SUPPLIES DRIVE TIME!

It's time for another baby item collection! Please help support Pro-Life ministries in Houston by bringing new baby and toddler clothes, diapers, wipes, and/or gift cards and leave them in the collection bin in the narthex. The bin will be available for all Masses March 6th/7th, 13th/14th, and 20th/21st. Contact Taylor with any questions, or to arrange another drop-off time! (713) 444-9418

Alleluia Silenced

If any one word could be said to sum up the Sacred Liturgy, that word would be Alleluia. Derived from the Hebrew expression Hallelu-Yah, meaning “Praise the Lord,” this ancient cry of jubilation became for the early Church the distinctive acclamation of joy in the Paschal mystery: “Alleluia, He is risen.”

Until the time of Pope St. Gregory the Great, the Alleluia was restricted to the celebration of Easter, but it quickly spread to herald the Gospel at nearly every Mass and to announce all the hours of the Divine Office. No other word so emphatically accompanies the faithful through the year and so distinctly stamps the Christian life with the seal of joy and confidence in the victory of the Resurrection. Even so, Alleluia goes silent in Lent and disappears from the Church’s round of prayer from Ash Wednesday until the Easter Vigil. Though we continue to rejoice in the Resurrection and while every Sunday, even those in Lent, celebrates “a little Easter,” we shroud our joy in mourning just as we veil images and statuary throughout this season of penance.

In traditional Roman usage, Alleluia was discontinued some seventy days before Easter, from Septuagesima on, and thus the penitential season was drawn out to evoke the seventy-year captivity of the Jews as a time of suffering for sin. According to William Durandus, the great medieval liturgist, “We desist from saying Alleluia, the song chanted by angels, because we have been excluded from the company of the angels on account of Adam’s sin. In the Babylon of our earthly life we sit by the streams, weeping as we remember Sion. For as the children of Israel in an alien land hung their harps upon the willows, so we too must forget the Alleluia song in the season of sadness, of penance, and bitterness of heart.”

In medieval England, it was common on Septuagesima Sunday to “bury the Alleluia”: the word would be inscribed on parchment, locked in a casket, and ritually buried in the crypt, there to await in darkness and silence its rebirth from the dead at Easter.

Seminarian Suppers Ministry

We have a need for volunteers to be a part of a new Ministry, Seminarian Suppers. This would be preparing food for a Sunday according to a schedule given that would be dropped off at the seminarians house by 4:00 PM. If you are interested in being a part of this ministry please contact Lynn Forrester at lynnsue-lynn@yahoo.com, or contact Danny Pitocco at n8sdada@aol.com. We are hoping to have 10 to 12 families as part of this ministry.
