Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please fill out a visitor's card (found in the pew racks) and return it in the offering plate so we will have a record of your visit. And please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Our Lady of Walsingham receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Prayer Intention of the Holy Father, Pope Francis

Let us pray that we may experience the sacrament of reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.

Bishop's Annual Appeal Laying a foundation for the Ordinariate

God bless all of you who have so generously responded in support of the 2021 Bishop's Appeal. Gifts to this campaign will make it possible for more of God's people to be touched by the Ordinariate's witness of faith. If you have not yet responded, please do so today. Pick up a pledge card located in the narthex or visit ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal to give.

BABY SUPPLIES DRIVE TIME!

It's time for another baby item collection! Please help support Pro-Life ministries in Houston by bringing new baby and toddler clothes, diapers, wipes, and/or gift cards and leave them in the collection bin in the narthex. The bin will be available for all Masses March 6th/7th, 13th/14th, and 20th/21st. Contact Taylor with any questions, or to arrange another drop-off time!

Armed for Spiritual Combat

It is easy to think about the season of Lent in largely negative terms, as matter of “giving things up,” of self-denial, and renunciation. In the Sacred Liturgy, we fast from sight with the veiling of images, we forego the Gloria in excelsis Deo at Sunday Masses, and we refrain saying the Alleluia throughout the season. Even yet, it is worth attending to the positive features of Lent and remembering the augmented resources the Church gives to the faithful for more resolutely turning to the Lord and for better arming our souls in the spiritual combat at hand.

The Mass texts throughout Lent constantly remind us that we do not fight alone and that God is always ready to give more to those from whom He asks more. The Propers for the Third Sunday in Lent provide many affirmative examples of how the Lord’s “loving-kindness” works strength in battle, relief in travail, and help in need. The Introit offers confidence amid desolation and misery: “Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord, for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.” The Collect answers our “hearty desires” and calls God to “stretch forth the right of thy majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies.” And the Tract (which replaces the Alleluia for the Gospel acclamation) echoes the Introit in lifting our gaze to the source of strength: “Even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God.”

Among the special resources our Missal provides in Lent is the “Prayer over the People” (Oratio super Populum) which follows the Postcommunion and precedes the Blessing at all of the Masses in Lent. These formularies are an ancient feature of the Catholic Mass, dating back to the fourth century, but by the time of Pope St. Gregory the Great (sixth century AD) they were restricted to Lenten Masses. Newly restored to the Roman Rite with the third typical edition of the revised Roman Missal (2008), these special Lenten texts come into the Ordinariate Missal on the precedent of the so-called Anglican Missals which enriched the Book of Common Prayer and nurtured a Catholic sensibility during the time of ecclesial separation.

Here on the Third Sunday in Lent, the Prayer over the People augments the Blessing and sends the faithful forth from Mass, charged with zeal for charity and faithfulness:

We beseech thee, O Lord, to rule the hearts of thy faithful people: and in thy loving-kindness, grant thy servants grace; that, abiding in the love of thee and their neighbour, they may fulfil the whole of thy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Seminarian Suppers Ministry

We have a need for volunteers to be a part of a new Ministry, Seminarian Suppers. This would be preparing food for a Sunday according to a schedule given that would be dropped off at the seminarians house by 4:00 PM. If you are interested in being a part of this ministry please contact Lynn Forrester at lynnsuelynn@yahoo.com, or contact Danny Pi-tocco at n8sdada@aol.com.
