SOUTHERN MARYLAND ROOTS NEWS: Southern Maryland Roots youth group is hosting an Advent Family Potluck Celebration on Sunday November 28th 12pm-4pm at St. Francis Xavier Parish Hall. Each family will get to make an Advent wreath with fresh greens, participate in a Nativity play, and to participate in a give-back project helping to make prayer boxes for our local homeless (will be given to the Three Oaks Center for distribution). Families will take one home to fill with gift cards, personal care items, gloves, hats and more for Christmas. Prayer boxes will be due back to St. Francis Xavier Parish Hall on December 12th and can be dropped off after all the Masses. All are welcome to join us bring a dish to share! Come celebrate preparing for the birthday of our Lord!

The next youth meeting at HASH School will be on Wednesday, December 8th from 5:30-8pm. We will begin watching the Chosen series with pizza and popcorn then we'll head over to Holy Angels Church to meet parents for Mass at 7pm.

Thank you to all who came out and "braved" the cold to support the "CHICKENSTOCK" Grassroots Fall Festival Hosted by Bachelor's Hope Farm on Saturday! It was a fun time spent with our community while enjoying the incredible talents from our youth! Thank you KCA, Chopticon High school, Ryken High school, and FAW school students and their instructors you all were a joy to watch!!! Thank you to the Sponsors, Food and Craft Vendors, Summer Breeze Band, Kelly Micalea, Marie Miller, Fr. Chip, Fr. Ryan, Fr. Stephen, Seminarian Joe, our local ministries, and to all the many wonderful volunteers and Roots families who without their generosity, time, and help this event would not have been possible! Lastly, I would like to especially thank the Spence family on behalf of Southern Maryland Roots for taking on such an incredible endeavor! Because of your "yes" the community was able to enjoy a wholesome faith filled memorable evening with family and friends...the overall comments of the evening everyone felt like they were in a Hallmark movie! Thank you, Spence family, for this very special and blessed time! Many blessings to you and your family for all you did in support of our youth! May God bless you all always!
