TODAY, WE CALL FORTH...parishioners to serve on our various parish commissions. Please pray throughout our mass this morning for guidance as we call parishioners to leadership and service. There are forms available in the pews on which to make your selection. Please take some time before leaving this morning to indicate who you wish to call to leadership and service. There is a basket in the vestibule in which you may place your completed form. If you would want some more time, please return your form by Wednesday. We thank those parishioners who were nominated and agreed to have their names placed before us today for our consideration and discernment. We thank Regina Lix and all who helped her in this annual process.
