HOLY BAPTISM... is celebrated with our 9am Eucharist, this morning for Tenley, the daughter of William and Danielle Breault, and Walter and Ellis, the sons of Todd and Lauren Cossman. We welcome Tenley, our new sister, and Walter and Ellis, our new brothers, into the Body of Christ. We pledge our support to Will and Danielle and to Todd and Lauren in their mission of Christian parenting. Let us hold them all in our prayer.

COFFEE AND ROLLS... are served following mass this morning. Please stop by the Parish Center after mass for light refreshment and to visit with fellow parishioners. We appreciate the Altar Society for providing this opportunity for community and fellowship.

AN INQUIRER... is a person who is unbaptized who is drawn to the Christian way of life. An Inquirer maybe baptized and seeking basic information about Catholicism. An Inquirer may or may not eventually be baptized or join the Catholic Church. How someone comes to consider baptism and/or joining the Catholic Church is unique to each individual. Years of marriage to a Catholic spouse, conversations with a Catholic friend or co-worker or even something written or viewed in the media can move an adult toward baptism and/or membership in the Catholic Church. Informally, this can go on for years! At some point, one begins more formal steps.

INQUIRY... may be the first of those steps. One begins to meet with Catholics and other adults who are also inquiring about baptism and/or the Catholic faith. These adults, with members of the Inquiry Team, will take time to tell their own stories and connect them with the faith stories found in scripture. The Inquirers have the opportunity to ask questions and together to seek answers. Throughout it all Inquirers and Team trust that it is Lord who invites and provides the grace to respond to that invitation. Inquiry session for June is this Thursday June 21st, 6:30pm, St. Andrew Parish Center. For more information: contact Fr. Bob, 227-3363 or 227-1555; rschremmer@dcdiocese.org. or Sara Smith, 225-5542.
