People of Saint Andrew Parish

From Father Ted

Meet Boggs. I don't know how many of you are "dog-people", but I sure am. My last dog "Dug", died two years ago. I wasn't looking for another one, but through a series of events, and through the encouragement (plotting) of some people; I am again, the owner of a puppy. Over the years, dogs have taught me a lot about life. They have helped me become who I am, and have facilitated growing closer to God. I'm thinking that Boggs will be a good source of spiritual reflection for us. So, every once in a while, look for some "DOGmatic Theology" from Boggs. Maybe together we can figure out who's a "good boy."

NOTE: Bishop John and Cathedral priests are live-streaming mass from the Chancery Chapel/Cathedral. Go to www.dcdiocese.org to see the schedule of times. To view, click on the Facebook icon (you don't have to be on Facebook) in the upper right-hand corner.

Stewardship

These are uncertain times for all us. This includes uncertainty about our financial stability. Families will have varying degrees of ability to support the mission and life of our parish, diocese, and world-wide Church especially during this crisis.

At our masses celebrated in Saint Andrew, there will be a basket into which one may place one's monetary offering on entering or leaving. You may also continue to give your stewardship offerings through other ways. If you have not done so, you may wish to sign up for online giving. A number of our parishioners have been giving this way for some time now. It is simple and it provides various ways to make your contribution: <https://www.parishgiving.org/index>. You may also mail your offering: PO Box 125, Wright, KS 67882. You may drop it by the church just slip it under the door to the west sacristy. That's up front by the statues of Joseph and Mary. There's a sign on the door.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

Are you or a loved one suffering from abortion? Find hope and allow God to heal your heart by attending a Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat. The second retreat of 2020 to be held in the Kansas City area will be on July 24-26. For more information or to register, please call Teresa O'Donnell at (816) 679-4973 or email rvkcmo@gmail.com (please note: you might have to check your Spam folder for the guaranteed email reply) or visit www.rachelsvineyardkc.org

Getting back to Mass

Bishop Brungardt lifted the suspension of public masses for our county as well as for Finney and Seward counties beginning Wednesday, June 17th. This means that we are having public mass again at Saint Andrew. This also means we will have to abide by the same restrictions to which the rest of our Diocese has been adhering since May 27.

Main among these restrictions are avoid touching doors and non-family members; maintain 6-foot distance between households and individuals in the pews, as well as, movement in and out of church and for holy communion; out of care and concern for other people, please wear a mask. The Bishop wishes to note that the dispensation from the obligation to participate in mass remains in effect. If one is sick or susceptible or in contact with those who are, please stay home. Also, any who are especially vulnerable or do not feel safe should refrain from coming to church. The faithful are strongly encouraged to participate only in Masses of their own parish. For those who can, please consider participating in a weekday mass. This will leave more room on Sunday. A weekday mass in these circumstances does suffice as one's "Sunday" mass. The dispensation from the obligation to participate in Sunday mass remains in effect. In these circumstances, no one is obliged to go to mass.

At present using the 6-foot distance rule, we were able to locate 35 "spots" for individuals/households in Saint Andrew Church. These "spots" will be marked. Please occupy these designated spots. We are attempting to make arrangements so that we will be able to live stream from church to the Parish Center. Then, we hope we would be able to accommodate any overflow in the Parish Center, as well as those at home to share in mass at St. Andrew. This is proving more intricate than thought. It may take us some time to accomplish this. But it will be worth it.
