AN ADVENT/CHRISTMAS GIFT...is waiting for you on the table at the center of the church vestibule: It is a copy of Matthew Kelly's new book, "And God Laughed". There's one for each family, plus one to share with someone as a gift. If you know someone who is not yet comfortable returning to liturgies in person, please take another book and pass it on to them as well. We thank Pam McMillan and Greg & Regina Lix for providing these books this Christmas and New Year.

The Tilma of Juan Diego - Est. December 1531

EYES
Contain images of the scene with Juan Diego and the bishop that are visible only with modern technology.

RESILIENCE
The Tilma has survived a bomb attempt and also miraculously reconstituted itself after nitric acid solvent was spilled on it.

HANDS
United in prayer. The left is darker and the right is lighter, representing the two races.

STARS
Are accurate to the actual constellations that would have appeared in the Mexican sky on December 12, 1531.

RIBBON
A symbol of virginity. Its placement indicates she is with child.

HEARTBEAT
A stethoscope placed below the black band detected rhythmic beats of 115 per minute, the same as a baby's in the womb.

FLOWER
patterns are glyphs of the native language, contain various intricate messages.

ORIGINS
No sign of paint, brush strokes, or underdrawing have been found; the image is irreproducible; and at 3-4 inches from the cloth, the image disappears.

TEMPERATURE of the Tilma is constant at 98.6 degrees, the same as that of a living body.

MOON
On a snake-skinned moon. A symbol of an Aztec serpent god of human sacrifices.

ENDURANCE
The colors of the image are miraculously fresh and bright for being more than 500 years old. The fabric the image is made on normally disintegrates in 15-30 years yet the Tilma shows no sign of fading or cracking.

ANGEL
with feathered wings carries Mary to the people. The angel's red robe symbolizes the earth, while Mary's blue mantle symbolizes heaven.
