Thank you to everyone who helped me celebrate by 60th Jubilee as a Sister of St. Joseph. A special thank you to the Altar Society who planned the reception. Sister Jan

All are invited to celebrate these most sacred days of our liturgical year.

A year ago, we were unable to even gather for Holy Week liturgies. This year, we are grateful we can gather together to celebrate the Lord's passion, death and resurrection, yet we still need to be vigilant. Social distancing will be observed, and the use of face coverings is still encouraged.

Holy Thursday, April 1 - 7 pm - We begin these special days with foot washing, celebration of the Eucharist and adoration. A suggested schedule for adoration is 8-9 pm last names begin with M-Z and 9-10 pm last names begin A-L. However, any time one is able to spend with the Lord is encouraged.

Good Friday, April 2 - 7 pm - Today we proclaim the Passion from the Gospel of John who portrays Jesus as one very much in control, yet gives his life for the glory of his Father. We pray for many people throughout the world and venerate the cross. We receive Holy Communion that was consecrated on Holy Thursday.

Easter Vigil, April 3 - 9 pm - We begin outside the Parish Center with a new fire and light our new Easter Candle. We carry the flame inside and listen to the stories of salvation history. We make our way to the church to renew our baptismal promises and celebrate of the Eucharist.

Easter Sunday, April 4 - 9 am - We continue our Easter Celebration of Christ's victory over death by his resurrection. Children may bring their Easter baskets and place them in front of the altar to be blessed. After Mass there will be an Easter Egg hunt.

Preparation of the church for Easter will be at 10 am Saturday, April 3. The Liturgy Commission can use several people to help arrange lilies and Easter flowers and someone brave to climb the ladder to hang the curtain by the crucifix.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Church? Do you wonder why we do the things we do? Then we have a group you might want to meet with. Our next inquiry session is on April 8, 2021 from 6:30 to 7:30. We will meet in the Parish Center. Everyone is welcome. For more information, please contact Fr. Ted at 620 227-3363 or Sara Smith at 620 339-3654.

In this year of St. Joseph, if you are interested in learning more about St. Joseph, the book, "Consecration to St. Joseph" reveals the wonders of our spiritual father. If you would like to study this book in a group setting, please contact Barbara Durler. 620-255-1868

Please join us next weekend after mass for an Easter Egg hunt. Your welcome to bring your basket for a blessing.
