

April 1, HOLY THURSDAY

Song: Glory in the Cross

1. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ, our salvation and our hope. Let us bow in homage to the Lord of Life, who was broken to make us whole. There is no greater love, as blessed as this: to lay down one's life for a friend. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ and the triumph of God's great love.

2. Let us tell the story of the cross of Christ as we share this heavenly feast. We become one body in the blood of Christ, from the great to the very least. When we eat of this bread, and drink of this cup, we honor the death of the Lord. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ and the triumph of God's great love.

Spiritual Communion Prayer:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Transfer of the Eucharist Pange Lingua

1. Sing, my tongue, the Savior's glory, of his flesh the mystery sing; Of the Blood, all price exceeding, Shed by our immortal King, Destined for the world's redemption, From a noble womb to spring.
2. Of a pure and spotless virgin born for us on earth below, He, as man, with us conversing, Stayed, the seeds of truth to sow; Then he closed in solemn order wondrously his life of woe.
3. On the night of that last supper, seated with his chosen band, He, the Paschal victim eating, First fulfills the Law's command; Then as food, to the disciples gives himself with his own hand.
- 5. Tantum ergo Sacraméntum Venerémur cernui: Et antiqum documéntum Novo cedat ritui: Praestet fides supleméntum Sénsuum deféctui.
6. Genitóri, Genitóque Laus et jubilátio, Salus, honor, virtus quoque Sit et benedíctio: Procedénti ab utróque Compar sit laudátio. Amen.
