From the Pastor's Desk

Lord, will only a few people be saved? (Luke 13: 23)

This was the question raised to Jesus by someone in the crowd when he was passing through the villages and towns teaching while heading to Jerusalem. However, Jesus did not give a number nor did He answer him directly. Rather, He said, "My friend, strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able" (v. 24). Jesus was answering a more important question, "How can I be saved?"

I think this is what should concern us. How can we be saved? I believe that in order to be saved, we need to be a friend of God and do what He tells us to do, just like when Our Blessed Mother was at Cana and witnessed the shortage of wine. She said to the waiters, do whatever He tells you, referring to her son, Jesus. And, because the waiters obeyed Jesus, there was the first miracle, turning water of jars into wine.

They said there are only two kinds of people in this world: those who are being used by God for His purposes and those who are using God for their own purposes. One is serving God and the other is serving their own desires. Therefore, for those of us who are trying to become friends of God, let us try to do what God expects of us.

Let us follow, too, the advice of our second reading taken from the letter to the Hebrews: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges. Endure your trials as discipline; God treats you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline?" (Hebrew 12: 5-7). We should be grateful if we experience discipline, trials and scourges. This means that we are loved and considered as friends by God.

Let us also remember that what others say cannot be the measure of what is ethical, moral or right even if it is legal. The view of the majority is not necessarily the view of God. Let us put our trust in God and walk in His ways. Then we will realize that we can do all things through Christ because He gives us the strength to enter through the narrow gate.

St. Monica, whose feast day is on August 27th, experienced a lot of trials and scourges in dealing with her husband and son, Augustine, but because she trusted and walked in the ways of God even if it was hard, she ended up victorious by saving them all. Now they are being remembered as great saints of the universal Church. St. Monica and St. Augustine, pray for us that we may also be in heaven someday.

On Saturday, September 7th, the Christian Mothers will say the rosary at 7:00 P.M. in the prayer garden in honor of the Blessed Mother's birthday. Anyone is welcome to join them! †

The Sign of the Cross is the most natural and forgotten sacramental of the church. We bless ourselves before and after prayer, during the Holy Mass, when using holy water, and various other times during our day.

But have we ever thought about the symbolism involved or the power it possesses? The Sign of the Cross (Signum Crucis) marks us as children of God, no longer slaves to sin. Even the Old Testament refers to the sign that will mark our salvation (Ezekiel 9:5). It is a vital part of the sacrament of Baptism, the beginning of our journey as a follower of Christ, when the infant is sealed with the Sign of the Cross. Several references in the Book of Revelation tell us of those who are saved as being marked on our foreheads in His Holy Name (Revelation 14:1, 22:4). How do we properly make this important sign which is a mini catechism of what we believe? The five fingers of our hand can remind us of the 5 wounds of Christ during his passion. We touch the thumb to the pointer and index finger to symbolize the Most Holy Trinity. The last two fingers turn towards our palm to remind us of the 2 natures of Jesus, that he is both God and man. Our hand then makes a pilgrimage of sorts starting with our forehead (Our Father in Heaven) and descending towards the midriff (Christ coming to earth). And we end with our hands passing from one shoulder to the next prompting us to remember the Exodus that Christ led from sin and death to new life on Easter morning. So we should never take this gesture for granted. For in it, we are reminded of so many truths of our faith, and more importantly, of the one who loves us, who died for us and is walking with us in this journey towards our heavenly home.

The Bible Timeline: The Story of Salvation starts Wednesday morning (August 28th) or Thursday evening (August 29th). A limited number of extra workbooks were ordered. If you didn't sign up and would like to attend, please contact Beth Macurdy at: bmacurdy@ufw.org or 724-295-9411 to see if space is still available. †
