From the Pastor's Desk

This month, we are celebrating one of the most fundamental and most consoling truths of Catholicism, the Communion of Saints. Last Friday, we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints, the Church Triumphant, yesterday was the Commemoration of All Souls, the Church Suffering, and today should be for All of Us, the Church Militant. That would complete the Communion of Saints.

The church triumphant describes the Church in heaven - the realm in which the Holy Trinity, the angels and saints, and the abode of all those who have reached the fullness of salvation in Christ. But it will have its fullest being at the end of time, when all of creation and we hope all of us, will be conformed to Christ and all reality will be one of divine praise and glory.

The church militant refers to the Church on earth. The term "militant" can suggest an antagonistic relationship between the Church and the world. Nevertheless, it refers to an authentic reality: that the Church on earth works to overcome the imperfect and sinful dimensions of human existence and all of us are called to it. How? By preaching the Gospel and by the power of the good works we do and edifying when we give witness to what we preach.

The church suffering refers to the church in purgatory. We know that we are not perfect enough for heaven and not wicked enough for hell. So there must be a middle state of purification. According to the Catholic Catechism: "All who die in God's grace and friendship but imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." (CCC 1030) Although Scripture has no explicit mention of purgatory, it is implicitly contained in the 2 Maccabees, Chap. 12.

What is purgatory like? It is a place where they are being prepared for heaven. They are being purified before they see God. They cannot help themselves because the time for merit ended with death and so they depend on the mercy of God and the prayers offered for them. That is why we offer mass and pray for them. We may ask how many go to purgatory. And how long do they stay. Only God knows.

But what a consolation it is for us to know that long after we are dead and forgotten, the Church will be praying for us in every Mass. And because of the twenty-four different time zones in the world, several Masses are being offered every minute of the day somewhere in the world.

When we realize all of this, we see what a wonderful gift it is to be a Catholic and to be a member of the Communion of Saints.

As a parish, we do the nine day novena mass for All Souls from November 2nd to November 10th. So even while I am away on the pilgrimage, there will be priests who will cover for me to celebrate the mass for the parish on those said dates.

True Reformers

Episode 4: Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

A Cardinal Dedicated to Reform

As the nephew of the Pope, Charles Borromeo was one of the most powerful men in Rome. Yet he chose the challenge of reform, and lived for his flock.

"This presentation is great at teaching so many truths of our faith and the challenges of their times. Inspiring!"

Communion
Service at Concordia
Nursing Home*

I have extended an invitation to Rev. Jeremiah O'Shea to come to our parish next weekend. Father O'Shea will speak to you about the work being done by Unbound (previously known as CFCA), and how this provides a trust-worthy way to actively participate in the social outreach of the Catholic Church and answer the Gospel call to serve the poor. Founded by lay Catholics, Unbound is an organization that has served more than 600,000 children, youth and elderly in eighteen developing countries since 1981—empowering them to make more choices in their lives, live with dignity and reach their potential. Unbound's unique sponsorship program is highly personalized. It matches a child, youth or aging person at a project overseas with a sponsor in the United States who cares about and encourages that person. With a monthly contribution, a sponsor helps to provide much-needed nourishing food, medical and dental care, the chance for a child to go to school, livelihood programs for families and much more. All of these efforts are directed at affirming the dignity of every person in their local community. To learn more, please call 800-875-6564 or visit: www.unbound.org. Next week, please welcome Farther O'Shea to our parish. --Fr. Ron

News/Activities from Our Ministries/Organizations

The Christmas Season is right around corner! We are looking for singers for Advent and Christmas. Rehearsals are from 9:45-10:45 A.M. on Sunday mornings. The choir sings at the 11:00 A.M. Mass. Consider joining the choir to celebrate the season of Christ's birth! Help fill our beautiful church with beautiful music. All are welcome! For additional information, contact Tom at: koho18@hotmail.com or call me at 724-889-3862. †

Christmas Basket Raffle - Raffle tickets will be attached in next weekend's bulletin. Ticket stubs and money may be put in the envelope and placed in the collection basket, mailed in, dropped off at the Administrative Center, or given to any Christian Mother. Tickets are only $1.00/each. This is the main fundraiser for the christian Mothers and your support will be greatly appreciated!

Because of the pilgrimage, the monthly meeting will be held on Monday, November 18th, at 7:00 P.M., in the Christian Mother's Room. Prayer Service will be held prior to the meeting at 6:30 P.M.

All women of the parish are invited to a mini-retreat on Saturday, November 23rd. The rosary will be recited at 3:15 P.M, Mass at 4:00 P.M. followed by a reception with refreshments in our Fellowship Hall. Afterwards, Fr. Joseph Tuscan, Spiritual Director of the Christian Mothers, will speak. He is looking forward to speaking with all the women about the future of mothers. There are sign-up sheets at all of the church entrances in order to properly prepare for the reception. We look forward to an evening of fellowship and inspiration. †

The Responsorial Psalm - After the first reading in the Mass, we have what is called the responsorial psalm. As the name suggests, it is taken from the Book of Psalms in the Old Testament. The psalms are a collection of prayerful songs and poems, half of which were written by King David himself, and the others by several other authors. The traditional Hebrew title is Tehillim which means "praises" because that is what a psalm does. In reciting a Psalm, we are praising God in words to call attention to His glory and to remember the great things He has done and will do for us. So, what are we responding to? The psalm is purposefully chosen to reflect some theme from the first reading that we have just prayerfully listened to. As we have learned over the last few weeks, since the first reading and the Gospel are connected, the psalm can also give us a hint about what is to come in the Gospel. As an example, this Sunday (31st Sunday Year C) the first reading is from the Book of Wisdom which tells us of the great mercy of God and His desire that all people should be saved. Fittingly, the responsorial is taken from Psalm 145 in which we acclaim "I will praise your name forever and ever" because "The Lord is gracious and merciful" and "The Lord is good to ALL". The word all is repeated a half dozen times in these few short verses to strike home the point that St. Paul makes in 1 Timothy 2:4 that "God desires ALL men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth!" We hear the echoes of the psalm in today's Gospel when Jesus, in His quest for Zacchaeus, finds a prodigal son who has now come home. The Lord exclaims "Today salvation has come...for the Son of Man (Jesus) has come to seek and save what was lost". Jesus Himself prayed the psalms and quotes from them more than any other book of the Old Testament. The responsorial psalm is not just a listening event in the Mass, but a song of prayerful praise of the good God who loves us. †
