From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday, along with the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, we also observe the National Day of Prayer for the African American Family and the World Day for Consecrated Life. They perfectly go together in its observance this Sunday because they all relate to relationship, prayer and vocation.

When our Blessed Mother presented Jesus in the temple after completing the law of purification, it showed her relationship to God, how obedient and faithful she was, not only to the law but also to Him. As we pray for the African American Family and those who have responded to the call of priestly vocation and consecrated life, we are also showing our relationship to them. We may not know them personally, but the prayers we offer and the support we give are means of making us spiritually connected and appreciate the different vocation that calls us. What binds us together into one family of God is our faith and our baptism. By our baptism and faith, we become brothers and sisters in Christ. As the song goes, "we are called to love tenderly. We are called to serve one another and to walk humbly with God".

In conjunction with this, we are grateful and happy to have twenty-five new families in our parish who joined this past year, including the month of January, 2020. Last Saturday, we formally welcomed them with a delightful dinner, hosted by St. Mary Parish Pastoral Council. We are glad to have them as part of our parish family.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The prayers surrounding baptism often speak of being "clothed in Christ," and clothes are an important consideration. In ancient times, adults were probably baptized without any clothes at all, and old texts survive asking people to leave fancy garb and jewelry behind as they enter the font. Baptism was typically in a private place, the community waited elsewhere, and the casting off of clothing was hardly a public moment, nor was it embarrassing in ancient cultures where privacy was largely unknown.

Nonetheless, what was left behind on one side of the font was replaced on the other as a white robe was wrapped around the newly baptized. It was a robe of honor, a dazzling sign of a new beginning for a society that valued clothing as a sign of personal identity. For the newly baptized, a whole week in white garments was the rule, through the second Sunday of Easter, called "Sunday in Albis," because of all the folks wearing their baptismal robes.

If you are new to the area, we invite you to share fully in our parish life. Your presence brings vitality and new gifts to the community. Please take a moment to register. Forms are available at all of the church entrances or by calling the Administrative Office at 724-295-2281.

Happy 2020 from your Pastoral Council who met for the first time this year on Tuesday, January 7th. The final DLA report was accepted and the DLA team has already moved forward with their proposal for 2020. Projects were identified and sent to the diocese for approval on January 25th. Once approval is received, the new Diocesan Lenten Appeal will begin from the pulpit. St. Mary's is planning a very spiritual Lenten Season and hopefully all of us will be able to take advantage of the programs. The Men's group is sponsoring a Lenten Evening of Reflection for the ENTIRE congregation on Sunday, March 1st, 6:30 to 8:00 P.M. Fr. Matthew Palkowski, OFM Capuchin, will be the speaker. The youth from St. Ferdinand Parish, Cranberry will also perform the Living Stations, a very moving event, on Sunday, March 22nd, at 7:00 P.M. These events are in addition to our Holy Week schedule. The facilities committee reported that the windows project in the conference room and the office has been completed. The Mardi Gras "wine tasting and lite fare" will be held on Saturday, February 22nd. This is the only fundraiser that our parish holds and all proceeds fund the maintenance needs for St. Mary's campus. St. Mary, Mother of God parish had twenty-five families who joined in 2019 and our tradition of holding a NEW Member dinner was held on Saturday, January 25th immediately following the 4:00 P.M. Mass. It was informative and a warm way to welcome our newest members. The next Pastoral Council meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 3rd. If you have a suggestion or a concern, please speak to Fr. Ron or any member of the council so your ideas and thoughts may be addressed.

Bridget Fogarty—Pastoral Facilitator †

We celebrate World Day for Consecrated Life today. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation. †
