SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday:	First Sunday of Lent
Monday:	Julian Calendar Lent begins
Tuesday:	St. Katharine Drexel
Wednesday:	St. Casimir
Friday:	World Day of Prayer; Abstinence; First Friday
Saturday:	Ss. Perpetua and Felicity; First Saturday

From the Pastor's Desk

With the celebration of Ash Wednesday last week, we began the observance of the Lenten Season. That day, we received the ashes on our forehead while we heard the words of admonition, "Remember that you are dust and unto dust you shall return or Repent and believe in the Gospel". This was a way of reminding us of who we are and the constant call to repentance because sometimes we are overcome by temptation that leads us to sin and that is what happened to our first parents, Adam and Eve.

The first reading this Sunday from Genesis (Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7) recalls how they fell from the enticement of the serpent to sin by eating the fruit which God had forbidden them to eat. After they had eaten the fruit, they suddenly had the awareness of good and evil. Concupiscence made them aware that they were naked and they hid themselves. The devil succeeded in persuading them to turn away from the truth and from God. As a result, many graces had been lost because of sin and their action had an effect on all humanity and that includes us.

However, the second reading from Romans (Romans 5:12-19) contrasts Adam with Christ. While many things were lost in the wake of disobedience of Adam, through the obedience of Christ a new life has been won. St. Paul says that "For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous". Thus, we have been saved by the obedience of Christ which culminated in Jesus' death on the Cross.

The Gospel (Matthew 4:1-11) talks about the temptations of Jesus in the desert. While Jesus prayed and fasted for forty days and forty nights, the devil entered and tempted Jesus not only once, but three times. But Jesus was never overcome by those enticements. He was victorious over the devil.

Now what is the significance of these readings in this Lenten Season?

The Lenten season is a time to rediscover the reality of sin in our lives. It is especially important because now more and more people no longer feel that they are sinning or they no longer have the "sense of sin". Some may still feel the sin, but they tend to rationalize their sins. In fact, for some, if a sin is being committed by many, they do not feel the guilt anymore. We can hear people who say, "Father, almost all of us in the office are doing it. So I don't feel guilty at all". This is dangerous. Sin is a sin and it cannot be rationalize and relativize. We need God's grace and His presence not to be overcome by sin.

PS. To everyone - thank you for once again making our Mardi Gras a huge success this year - our Parish Pastoral Council who hosted it, the sponsors and donors for their contributions, and Nick Fiasco's added fun and entertainment to the evening's event. Till next year.

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL—March 3rd (1858-1955)

Born into Philadelphia society, Katharine was an infant when she lost her mother. Her father remarried and the couple taught their daughters that their wealth was a "gift on loan" to be shared with the poor, whom they fed and cared for in their home. Invited by priest friends to witness firsthand the destitution on Native American reservations, Katharine resolved to devote her inheritance to this apostolate and enter a contemplative order. When, however, in private audience, she begged Leo XIII to send missionaries to staff the schools she was building, the pope replied, "My child, why not become a missionary yourself?" Katharine renounced a twenty-million-dollar fortune and founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, adoring Christ present in the Eucharist and ministering to Christ suffering in victims of racial discrimination. Her Sisters established over sixty schools nationwide, including Xavier University, New Orleans, the first dedicated to professional education for African Americans. In 2000, John Paul II canonized "Mother Drexel," praising her "excellent example of practical charity and generous solidarity with the less fortunate, long the distinguishing mark of American Catholics."

If you are new to the area, we invite you to share fully in our parish life. Your presence brings vitality and new gifts to the community. Please take a moment to register. Forms are available at all of the church entrances or by calling the Administrative Office at 724-295-2281.

Stations of the Cross—As we gaze from our pew to look upon the walls to the right and the left of us, there are fourteen traditional Stations of the Cross. We, at St. Mary's, are especially blessed to have such stunning depictions of Christ's final journey to the cross. This beautiful custom goes back hundreds of years, but the spirituality of walking with Jesus in His final moments goes back even further. Tradition has it that Mary, the Mother of God, would trace the steps of her Savior and son in remembrance of the sacrifice He made for us. A few hundred years later, St. Petronius, a bishop of Bologna in Italy, made chapels to represent the events of the Holy Passion. When Muslim invaders seized Jerusalem, pilgrimages became impossible, therefore, the Church brought the locations to us in the form of the Stations of the Cross. Most of us will never be able to travel to Jerusalem to walk this Holy Way, but we can still spiritually join ourselves with Christ and be present. On Fridays during Lent, we can come to St. Mary's and for thirty minutes or so, leave Freeport behind to journey to the Holy Land and experience the tremendous love Jesus has for us through scripture, song, and prayer. Each station depicts a moment that Christ surrendered Himself and walked a way of pain and suffering out of love for us. It is through the redeeming power of the Cross that our Salvation was accomplished. Every trial in our life, physical, mental, or emotional suffering and burdens we carry, our Lord also experienced in His human nature. As each station reminds us of these events in His Passion, we can recall the same type of moment in our personal lives. How many times have we also agonized in prayer, fallen repeatedly under the crushing weight of a cross in our life, or been unjustly condemned by those whom we love? Praying the Stations of the Cross is a gift we can give to the Lord. We pray along with St. Paul when he said he could "rejoice in what I am suffering...and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in Christ's suffering" (Colossians 1:24). What is lacking is my participation with Him by uniting my personal way of the cross with His. He never promised us a life of wine and roses, but in order to follow Him, we must "deny ourselves and take up our cross". Walk the stations each Friday in Lent and transform your burdens into something beautiful for God.

"We adore you O Christ and we praise you! Because by Your holy cross You have redeemed the world." †

Theology
ON TAP

Join us for Theology on Tap on Thursday, March 12th at 7:00 P.M. at Smokin' Toad's BBQ in Sarver. This month's topic is "Overcoming Evil" with speaker Fr. Jim Holland.
