Seventh Week of Ordinary Time & The Beginning of Lent

On the Seventh Week of Ordinary Time, Jesus gives us one of the biggest challenges to living the Christian life: Love Your Enemies. "I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well."

We have only three days of the Seventh Week of Ordinary Time.

Ash Wednesday begins the season of Lent.

The first few days of this week are the last of the Ordinary Time readings until the day after Pentecost Sunday, which will end the Easter Season.

Beginning of Lent

The Season of Lent begins with four days that serve as an introduction to the four Lenten practices of Prayer, Fasting, Repentance and Almsgiving.

Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstinence. We wear ashes on our foreheads to remember who we are and express our desire to turn away from sin and to believe the Good News. The Prophet Joel helps us begin our journey: "return to me with your whole heart." "Rend your hearts, not your garments," reminds us that this is an interior journey.

The Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 51, has the antiphon: "Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned." Paul, in his First Letter to the Corinthians says, "be reconciled to God ... we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain ... Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." In Matthew's Gospel Jesus gives us a guide for our Lenten practices, "Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them."

On Thursday we read in Deuteronomy how Moses urges his people to turn away from sin. "Choose life, then, that you and your descendants may live, by loving the LORD, your God, heeding his voice, and holding fast to him."

Friday and Saturday: It is the long tradition of Lent to prepare us for our journey by having us reflect on Isaiah, Chapter 58, as we begin. "This is the fasting that I wish" gives us the true picture of fasting: letting God's Spirit transform us. It is a call to conversion. Jesus confirms his desire to help us, "I have not come to call the righteous to repentance but sinners."

On the First Sunday of Lent, we begin our Lenten journey, remembering how God re-established the covenant, after the flood, and we reflect on how Jesus began his public ministry with a retreat of forty days - led to the desert by the Spirit.

Fasting:

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of universal fast and abstinence. Fasting is obligatory for all who have completed their 18th year and have not yet reached their 60th year. Fasting allows a person to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may be taken, not to equal one full meal. Abstinence (from meat) is obligatory for all who have reached their 14th year.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

Abstinence:

Fridays in Lent are obligatory days of complete abstinence (from meat) for all who have completed their 14th year.

Ayuno:

El Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo son días obligatorios de ayuno universal y abstinencia. El ayuno es obligatorio para todos los que han cumplido 18 años y aún no han cumplido 60 años. El ayuno permite a una persona comer una comida completa. Dos comidas más pequeñas se pueden tomar, no para igualar una comida completa. La abstinencia (de la carne) es obligatoria para todos los que han cumplido 14 años.

Si es posible, el ayuno del Viernes Santo continúa hasta la Vigilia Pascual (el sábado santo) como "ayuno pascual" para honrar el sufrimiento y la muerte del Señor Jesús, y prepararnos para compartir más plenamente y celebrar más fácilmente Su Resurrección.

Abstinencia:

Los viernes en Cuaresma son días obligatorios de abstinencia completa (de carne) para todos los que hayan cumplido 14 años.
