Solemnity Of All Saints

The Thirty-first Week of Ordinary Time

On Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. It is most appropriate that we recognize the feast with the Beatitudes as the gospel.

November 2, we celebrate the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day). Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, bishop.

The first readings this week are from Paul's wonderful Letter to the Philippians.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, Jesus talks about not inviting all the "right" people into our lives, but to include "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind." "For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." He tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their grudges and forgive to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. He tells two parables: the shepherd who leaves the 99 sheep to look for one lost one and the woman who searches for a gold coin. "In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents." The story of the dishonest steward who is caught over-charging his master's customers and saves himself by cutting his master's prices prompts Jesus to say, "the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than the children of light." Finally, Jesus says that we can't have two masters, trying to love God and money. When a Pharisee sneered at him, he said: "what is of human esteem is an abomination in the sight of God."

Next Sunday is the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time. The gospel is the parable Jesus tells about the ten wise and ten foolish attendants. The foolish ones did not bring enough oil for their lamps. It is an encouragement for us to keep ready and to be prepared for what "oil" we need to meet now and

Daily Prayer This Week

This week it is clear that Jesus is calling us to a deeper love of our neighbor. He is telling us that we need to expand the list of those we are to love. He is telling us to have more passion in our desire to love others and he is urging us to prepare for how we will do that. Finally, Jesus makes it clear that we can't try to love money or honors and at the same time love God.

This is a wonderful background reflection for us this week. All week we can ask the Lord to help us. The quality of our asking will make all of the difference.

Dear Lord, help me today when, in my busyness, I become self absorbed. Help me, in my intensity, when I take things personally. Help me, in the burdens I bear, to give up my escape into self-pity.

Dear Lord, thank you for loving me and for showering so many gifts on me and my family. Help me to be more grateful and more generous. Today, help me to notice the needs of others. Help me to hear the news with more compassion. Help me imagine what I can do for others in need. I know the cost of discipleship with you will be easy when I remember your love.

Dear Lord, I am really getting it that the lure of 'riches and honors' can easily seduce my heart. Why is it so tempting to like and want to be with the beautiful people, the 'successful' people? Why do I get sucked into these values and these ways of valuing myself and others? Let me choose 'simple,' Lord. Let me choose 'solidarity.' And, when I resist, call me.

These kinds of prayers, or the prayers that come to my heart in this or that daily situation - so simple to express to the Lord in 20 or 30 seconds as I walk down a hall or do any ordinary thing that allows me turn to God - can transform our days. These are words of intimacy, faith, trust, reliance. They acknowledge small graces and ask for bigger ones. They come out of a desire to grow in our

Mass Songs

-Sing With All The Saints in Glory—Missalette # 141

-We Are The Light Of The World—Missalette #202

Be Not Afraid

1. You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst. You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way. You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand. You shall see the face of God and live.

Refrain Be not afraid. I go before you always. Come follow me, and I will give you rest.

2. If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown. If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed. If you stand before the pow'r of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all.
3. Blessed are your poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs. Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh. And if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed are you!

-For The Healing Of The Nations—Missalette #217

Cantos de Misa

Qué Alegría Cuando Me Dijeron

Estribillo Qué alegría cuando me dijeron: “Vamos a la casa del Señor”! Ya están pisando nuestros pies tus umbrales, Jerusalén. lén.

1. Jerusalén está fundada como ciudad bien compacta. Allá suben las tribus, las tribus del Señor.
2. Según la costumbre de Israel, a celebrar el nombre del Señor. En ella están los tribunals de justicia, en el palacio de David.

Felices

1. Felices los probres de espíritu, por que de ellos es el Reino de los Cielos. Felices los que sufren, los que lloran, por que recibirán paz y consuelo.
2. Felices los que por la paz trabajan, los hijos de Dios serán llamados. Felices los hambrientos de justicia, pues todos ellos quedarán saciados.

Estribillo Sean felices, sean dichosos, muéstrense siempre gozosos; si por mí son perseguidos yo los recompensaré. Sean felices, sean dichosos muéstrense siempre gozosos; cada instante con ustedes estaré.

-Pan De Vida—Misal #710

Pueblo Santo y Elejido

1. Caminamos hacia ti, oh ciudad de nuestro Dios, construyendo en este mundo la verdad y el amor.
