My Dear Parish Family:

Today we begin the holiest week of the Church year. We enter into the very life, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. The events we celebrate this week are not only historical, but for we who believe, they are celebrated in a sacramental way that makes us “present” to the sacred mysteries.

Imagine you and I are among the crowd, placing the palms along the path and welcoming Jesus. In His day, the palms were a sign of royalty and victory: the Jewish people carried the palms on their festive holy days; for the Roman soldiers they signified victory parades in Rome. Jesus was being greeted in this same spirit, the victory usually accorded to kings and armies. The palm branches we hold in our hands on this day also reflect an incredible victory...the ultimate victory of Jesus was His Easter conquest over sin and death... a victory that was attained only through His suffering and ultimate death, death on a cross. You and I are one with those shouting “welcome” to Jesus; what else would we say to make Jesus feel honored and welcome?

The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass on Holy Thursday. On this blessed day, we celebrate the sacraments instituted by Jesus at His Last Supper, the priesthood and Eucharist. Imagine being present in the room along with the apostles when Jesus held the bread and said, “Take it; this is my body”.... Then He took a cup and said, “This is my blood of the covenant which will be shed for many...”(Mk 14: 22-23). Following the meal, Jesus rises from the table and begins to wash the feet of His apostles, commanding them that if He, their Lord and teacher, can wash their feet, they must do the same for others. He teaches us that leadership does not constitute power, but is of service. We are present with the apostles. How would we react? How do we serve in complete humility for the sake of others and not our own?

The night continues and we are with Jesus in His agony in the garden. His apostles fell asleep when He needed them the most. Can we stay awake for just one hour with Him or will we also abandon Him? How did we feel when friends or family have turned their backs on us?

The Triduum continues on Good Friday. Let us place ourselves in the crowd that convicted the Jesus who was hailed as “king” only a few days ago. We are with Him when He faced Pilate and was sentenced to death. We walk alongside Him as He journeyed the path to Golgotha. We are with Him at the foot of the cross as He breathes His last. What do we feel? Living this week with Jesus, how have we changed from within?

Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday brings us new life and the assurance that death and sin are conquered...and we are with Mary Magdalene and the others with hearts open and welcoming. In every Mass we experience Holy Week, Jesus’ passion. We are present at the foot of the Cross, week after week, day after day. We share Christ’s pain through our own sorrows, disappointments, illnesses, betrayals...but we know now that it is in Christ that we have hope, He is our Victor. Don’t ignore this week. Don’t be the one who abandons Him again. Come and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, participate in the Triduum, and celebrate your faith in the name of Jesus Christ.

I wish you a blessed Holy Week,
Anne DeMarco
Pastoral Associate

The Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist are special fountains of mercy which should be received as a condition for obtaining His promise for the Feast of Mercy.
