My Dear Parish Family,

Many years ago, when I was a mathematics teacher, I met a fellow teacher who eventually became one of my very closest and dearest friends. He and his wife were and remain intense people of deep faith. We shared a great friendship that was centered on our common love for Jesus Christ. In fact, when we would get together, after the questions about the family were answered he would ask me, "So, how is your prayer life?" Yeah, I told you he was intense!

We both knew how absolutely essential it is to our journey of faith in this world to have a daily, regular routine of prayer. During those "30-something" years of our growing families, we found time to meet weekly with several other men and hold each other accountable in this regard. We learned that, yes, prayer is that important, that essential for each of us.

Prayer is a dialogue with the God who made us, the God who saves us and the God who sanctifies us. In other words our prayer is always Trinitarian. Dialogue is essential to the life of our relationship with God. The Servant of God, Bishop Fulton J. Sheen referred to his daily hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament as "the oxygen tank that revived the breath of the Holy Spirit."

There five basic types of prayer: Adoration, Petition, Intercession, Thankfulness and Praise. Adoration is often a silent "being present" one to the other in a loving exchange of gazes. An opportunity is our monthly Eucharistic Adoration on first Fridays. Petition is prayer in response to the Lord's command to ask, seek and knock. We petition God, the author of all good gifts for what we need. Intercession is the petition on behalf of the good of others. Thankfulness is the prayer of gratitude for the blessings and the challenges God sends us. Praise is what we sing joyfully when we belt out the Gloria. Yes, all types of prayer can be found with the Mass. Coincidence? I think not!

So, in closing I will put to you the same question my friend used to put to me: "So, how is your prayer life?" You can answer the question for yourself and allow it to challenge you or, if you care to share your answer with me send me an email at bbatista@dioceseofcleveland.org. I would love to hear from you. Learning how others pray always provides inspiration on how to expand my own prayer life. I promise to keep all responses confidential. God Bless you!

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Dying Catholic: Medical and Moral Issues At the End of Life Special Presentation at Holy Rosary on Wednesday, November 11, 2015 at 7:00 p.m.

The end of life (which can happen at any time of life!) is part of our journey to God; but in the modern world, it can bring with it complex and puzzling decisions that were not faced by earlier generations.

- When can one insist on treatment - when can one reject it?
- Is organ donation morally good, bad, or neutral?
- How do doctors define death nowadays?
- What do the terms ordinary and extraordinary treatment mean?
- Why have some countries, and U.S. states, legalized assisted suicide, and what should a Catholic think about it?
- What is euthanasia?
- Is a Living Will a good thing?
- What can you do if your Catholic values are not acknowledged – or understood by medical personnel?

These are some of the issues that will be addressed by Fr. Joseph Koopman, Assistant Professor of Moral Theology at St. Mary Seminary. His talk will be given in Holy Rosary's church hall on Wednesday night, November 11, at 7:00 p.m. There will be plenty of opportunities for you to ask questions also. The church hall is located in the lower level of the church building.

Please come!

All are welcome and refreshments will be served.
Sponsored by the Holy Rosary Respect Life Ministry.

This Holiday Season, There Are Two Ways to Help Newman Students!!

First, on Sunday, November 22 from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., come to Newman's Fair Trade Sale in the Parish Hall. We will have Fair Trade coffee, tea, and chocolate for sale as well as a selection of jewelry, scarves, purses, and even a few toys which would make great stocking stuffers. Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to cover their costs and provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families. By purchasing fairly traded foods and handcrafts, we are making a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that promises to help lift them out of poverty.

“Workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner.”

– Mater et Magistra, Pope John XXIII

Second, participate in our online Honey Baked Ham Sale! This year, fundraising will be through gift cards you can purchase online. They will be mailed directly to your home and make great holiday gifts for friends, family, colleagues and customers. Newman will receive 20% of the purchase price.

If you would like your holiday Honey Baked Ham delivered to Holy Rosary for pick up between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, December 23, that can be arranged!!! Order forms will be available via email after Thanksgiving or at Masses on December 5 and 6. Your order with cash or check is due Monday, December 7.

Stop by the Newman Fair Trade Sale to sign up for either the online gift card link or for the order form distribution for Honey Baked Hams!
