III Chelsea Mead Joshua Blake
Dear Parish Family,

“Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.” In saying this, Jesus reminds His disciples and us of the importance of perseverance in following Him with the whole of our lives. This Gospel passage, along with passages from other Gospels describing the end times, has long been used by many to make merely human predictions about the end of the world based on various occurrences. This may make for interesting conversation on late night radio talk shows, but not much more.

What really never passes away is the Word, spoken throughout the ages in Sacred Scripture and most especially in the Word Himself, Jesus. As Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI points out, “the realist is the one who recognizes in the Word of God the foundation of all things.” Yes, it is that Word through whom God made all of creation. Therefore, the entirety of our lives is founded in God who, ultimately, wants us to share in His life for all eternity.

While these Scriptures remind us of our eternal destiny, they are meant to challenge us to live with that destiny in mind in the here and now, within time. Think about the words of the Lord’s Prayer: “Our Father...thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.” We pray that we have the courage and grace to be obedient to God’s will in the here and now as the angels and saints are perfectly obedient to that will in heaven. We are obedient when we acknowledge the Word among us and put flesh to it with our lives. We know that all merely human things – possessions, status, desires – are all passing moments. These are the things that will pass away as Jesus says. It is God’s Word that endures and God’s love, which keeps us in being.

So, how will we respond to the Word? Will we learn the lesson of the fig tree? True, right now is the time for us to bury or cover them for the upcoming winter. But, we know and have witnessed their new growth each spring. As part of God’s creation, they obey the laws of nature God established for them. We trust that eventually new life and fruit will come forth. The same is true with our lives when we allow the Word to be the foundation. God will bring forth new life and abundant fruit from us to build God’s Kingdom right now. Jesus stands at the gates of our souls, at the core of who we are. He wants to enter and be that foundation for us through His Word so that new life will sprout from us and endure.

Let us pray for one another that we allow the Word to be our foundation. Jesus’ words will not pass away. Let us not let them pass us by as we journey through life.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

FAIR TRADE SALE – NEXT SUNDAY
IN THE CHURCH HALL

This Holiday Season,
There Are Two Ways to Help Newman Students!!

First, next Sunday, November 22, from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., come to Newman’s Fair Trade Sale in the Parish Hall. We will have Fair Trade coffee, tea, and chocolate for sale, as well as a selection of jewelry, scarves, purses, and even a few toys which would make great stocking stuffers.

Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to cover their costs and provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families. By purchasing fairly traded foods and handcrafts, we are making a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that promises to help lift them out of poverty.

“Workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner.”

– Mater et Magistra, Pope John XXIII

Second, participate in our online HoneyBaked Ham Sale! This year, fundraising will be through gift cards you can purchase online. They will be mailed directly to your home and make great holiday gifts for friends, family, colleagues and customers. Newman will receive 20% of the purchase price.

If you would like your holiday HoneyBaked Ham delivered to Holy Rosary for pick-up between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, December 23, that can be arranged!!! Order forms will be available via email after Thanksgiving, or at Masses on December 5 and 6. Your order with cash or check is due Monday, December 7.

Stop by the Newman Fair Trade Sale to sign up for either the online gift card link or for the order form distribution for HoneyBaked Hams!

Annual Holy Rosary Christmas Caroling
Please “Save the Date” for Friday, December 18th, at 7:00 p.m. – We invite you to gather in the Church Hall for the annual Family Ministry Christmas Caroling gathering. No special talent is necessary! We sing in the Little Italy neighborhood for the homebound members of our parish. It’s a lot of fun and is a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas. Take a night off from shopping...everyone is welcome! Please bring a friend and a dessert or appetizer to share. We provide the hot cocoa, beverages and songbooks.
What is the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens?
What is the Rite of Welcoming?

The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens is for inquirers in the RCIA process who are preparing for their Baptism. They are now ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey towards becoming Catholics. At this Rite, they are asked to more fully embrace the Gospel message with the help of God, and are also signed with the Cross to show that they now belong to Christ, the Shepherd of souls. In this Rite, we, as parish family have the opportunity to more fully participate in and pray for those in the RCIA process. This weekend, the inquirers who are considering joining the Catholic Church will experience this Rite. By Church law, the Pope and all bishops are to pray for those who have experienced this Rite.

The Rite of Welcoming is for inquirers who have been previously baptized and are ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. At this Rite, they are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles’ instruction, gather with the worshipping community in prayer, and join the community in the love and service of others. They are signed with the Cross to show that they belong to Christ.

Please keep all the participants of this RCIA process in your prayers. Thank you.

Amahl and the Night Visitors
Cleveland Opera Performance at Holy Rosary Church
Saturday, December 19, at 7:00 p.m.
Save the Date!
Celebrate the Christmas season with Gian Carlo Menotti’s classic holiday opera, Amahl and the Night Visitors, about a boy, Amahl, who can walk only with a crutch. He lives with his mother in Bethlehem in the first century. They receive visitors, three kings from a far away land, on a journey to meet a newborn child. What happens next? Well, you’ll have to be there to find out! Admission to this production is free, and monetary donations will be accepted to benefit the City Mission.

Choose one of our collected patterns or use your own favorite.
Whether you drop in on Thursdays or work on your own at home, you can drop off your finished items and yarn donations in the specially marked box in the Church Hall or at the Parish Office. Thank you!

Are you interested in the Catholic Faith?
Holy Rosary has begun a new journey in faith to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. We invite you to learn what the Church teaches and be introduced to some of our parish members. These also are opportunities for you, and others that you may wish to invite, to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. These gatherings are for inquirers and are open to those who are not baptized, as well as those who are baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist and Confirmation.

The sessions are on Tuesday evenings, from 7:00-9:00 p.m., in the Adult Ed Room of the school located next to Holy Rosary Church. Please contact Father Joseph Previte or Anne DeMarco if you have questions or would like further information at 216-421-2995.
